ED CLAPP ELEMENTARY SCHOOL TO HOST FAMILY LITERACY NIGHT

The Ed Clapp Elementary School Family Literacy Night promises to be something pulled straight out of a fairy tale.

WHAT: Family Literacy Night
WHEN: Thursday, February 6 from 5:30 p.m. to 7 p.m.
WHERE: Ed Clapp Elementary School, 3131 28th Street South, Fargo
CONTACT: Erin Kaluza, Ed Clapp Instructional Coach, kaluzae@fargo.k12.nd.us or 701.446.2940 for more information.

Ed Clapp Elementary School students and their families will live happily ever after at the Fairy Tale-themed Family Literacy Night this Thursday. Guests will participate in fun literacy-themed activities aimed at helping them grow as readers and develop a love of reading.

Families will rotate through activity stations focused on reading and literacy skills. There will be a dress up station and photo booth where students can dress up as fairy tale characters and take a picture and then write a caption for the picture. Theater students from Davies High School and South High School will perform short plays and fairy tale readings. There will be a craft and story station where guests can listen to a fairy tale while crafting a prince or princess crown. And there will be a mad lib station where guests will expand their vocabularies and practice identifying parts of speech while creating unique and funny stories.

Students and their families will also enjoy a free meal as they expand their literacy skills.
