

Weekly Update from Superintendent
Dr. Mary Catherine Reljac

100 DAYS!

Kindergarten students celebrated the 100th day of school last week with various activities marking the milestone, including art projects, counting lessons, games, and even the return of a super secret spy mission at O'Hara Elementary School!

A CELEBRATION OF CULTURES

Fairview Elementary School held its Multicultural Night on Friday with booths highlighting different countries and performances featuring various cultures.

ART & WRITING AWARDS WINNERS

Fox Chapel Area High School and Dorseyville Middle School students were named winners in the 2025 regional Scholastic Art & Writing Awards.

Juniors Raina Guzman and Mira Owens, and seventh-grader Samuel Ettinger won Gold Key awards in the arts. Gold Keys in writing were awarded to senior Gabriella Hample, sophomore HanYing Zhang, freshman Eliana Wellman, and eighth-graders Kai Galyardt, Celestial Hou, Brooke Nalevanko, and Carly Phatak. The Gold Key winners' work will be judged nationally.

A full list of winners is available at www.fcasd.edu.

BLOOD DRIVE SOON

Fox Chapel Area High School will host a blood drive on February 12 from 7:30 a.m.-1 p.m. in the LGI room. Donors are asked to make an appointment at vitalant.org, but walk-ins are also welcome.
