Effective 5/13/92

Revised

Subject: Home Schooling

The district shall consider all requests from parents who wish their children exempt from compulsory public school attendance.

Exemptions requested under Education Code 48224 (instruction by tutor) shall be granted only as long as the applicant demonstrates the following:

1. The owner or administrative head of the private school has filed with the Superintendent of Public Instruction an affidavit containing the information required by Education Code 33190.
2. The private school maintains records as required by Education Code 48222.

District relations with private schools shall be monitored by the Superintendent or designee.

The parent of a student who has been denied exemption from attendance or who attends full time private home school may request that the student be enrolled in the independent study program provided by Liberty Union High School District.

Admission will be determined by the procedures and eligibility requirements of the Liberty Union High School District Home School Program.

Special Education services may be provided to eligible students.

The district shall inform all parents of the requirements for exemption from attendance as set forth in the Education Code and in this policy.

In cases where no request for exemption is made, children not attending school will be classified as truant in accordance with state law and board policy.

The Home Schooling Program shall operate under the direct supervision of the Liberty Union High School District Alternative Education Director.

All programs will follow the Liberty Union High School District adopted curriculum.
