Subject: Students Expelled from Other Districts

The Governing Board recognizes that students expelled from school for serious offenses represent a possible danger to the students or staff at other schools in which they may seek to enroll. The Board therefore shall request expulsion information from the expelling district whenever it receives a request to enroll someone who has been expelled.

In order to identify and prohibit the enrollment of a potentially dangerous student, the Board shall hold a hearing before admitting any student expelled from another district. Education Code 48915.2 prohibits the enrollment, during the period of expulsions, of students expelled from school for offenses listed in subdivision (a) or (c) of Education Code 48915.
