Nosotros escribimos

Me llamo _____

La fecha _____

Spanish verbs ending in -ir are conjugated like -ar and -er verbs. When conjugating the verb, drop the last two letters (-ir) to indicate the subject pronoun, then add the proper ending.

Subject Pronoun	Ending to Add After Dropping the -ir	Conjugated Forms of the Verb Vivir	Meaning
yo	-o	viv + o = vivo	I live
tú	-es	viv + es = vives	you live
él, ella, Ud.	-e	viv + e = vive	he or she lives you live
nosotros, nosotras	-imos	viv + imos = vivimos	we live
ellos, ellas, Uds.	-en	viv + en = viven	they or you (pl.) live

Conjugate the following -ir verbs and give their meanings.

Subject Pronoun	abrir (to open)	Meaning	recibir (to receive)	Meaning yo
tú
él, ella, Ud.
nosotros, nosotras
ellos, ellas, Uds.

Other common -ir verbs:

admitir (to admit)
describir (to describe) omitir (to omit)
partir (to leave, depart)
subir (to go up or climb) decidir (to decide)
sufrir (to suffer)
dividir (to divide)
añadir (to add)

© Instructional Fair • TS Denison