Spanish verbs ending in -er are conjugated like -ar verbs. When conjugating the verb, drop the last two letters (-er) to indicate the subject pronoun, then add the proper ending.

Subject Pronoun	Ending to Add After Dropping the -er	Conjugated Forms of the Verb Comer	Meaning yo	-o	com + o = como	I eat tú	-es	com + es = comes	you eat él, ella, Ud.	-e	com + e = come	he or she eats you eat nosotros, nosotras	-emos	com + emos = comemos	we eat ellos, ellas, Uds.	-en	com + en = comen	they or you (pl.) eat

Conjugate the following -er verbs and give their meanings.

Subject Pronoun	beber (to drink)	Meaning	vender (to sell)	Meaning yo tú él, ella, Ud.
nosotros, nosotras
ellos, ellas, Uds.
