NEW BUSINESS FROM BOARD MEMBERS

Mrs. Aherne reported the IU settled the teacher's contract. They agreed to give back 3 days salary and agreed to be reimbursed for 9 credits a year not 9 credits each semester.

Mrs. Rinehart-Cowan questioned why on the 3rd day enrollment report we don't show any special education students. (We are only required to show total number of students) She would like the total number of special education students to go along with the special education budget. She said she had been questioned if we do random drug testing on employees. (No there is no policy)

Mrs. Voigt provided the following on the PSSA retakes: in writing 15 are eligible out of 99; in reading 42 are eligible out of 97; in Math 46 are eligible out of 93 and in science 73 are eligible out of 95.

SECOND HEARING OF VISITORS

Roy Twining asked Mrs. Pipitone how many students were there with IEP's (There were 179 as of 12-1-2010). He expressed his concerns regarding a student that has gone from 3rd grade to 8th grade and is still below basic. The student has a 30 at the mid marking period. He asked what the district is doing to help this student? Mrs. Rinehart-Cowan asked what we are doing so this doesn't happen again.

Roy Twining asked if a teacher is under emergency certification does this mean they are highly qualified? (No it just satisfies the auditor's requirements) He asked how long the emergency certification is good for (1 year). Is there a plan in place to become highly qualified? (yes)

Mrs. Rinehart-Cowan asked if they are under an emergency certification do they need more observation or a mentor. (There is no additional supervision required)

Roy Twining does not feel that the PDE emergency certification is the best practice for the district.

Mary Harrison commented that Barbara Watson was very impressed with the Behind the Glass. It was the best she had seen. Mary also commented that Barbara Watson stated that Karen Voigt was the most informed site coordinator she had met.

Barbara Kelly, Kingsley, asked if the MOU was public knowledge. (Yes it allows for locker room coverage by way of compensatory time) She questioned if the basketball game was a fundraiser for the high school (no).

Melinda Darrow asked with all the talk about emergency certification are they certified in another area (yes).
