

American Government: Chapter 8 Review

www.CrosswordWeaver.com

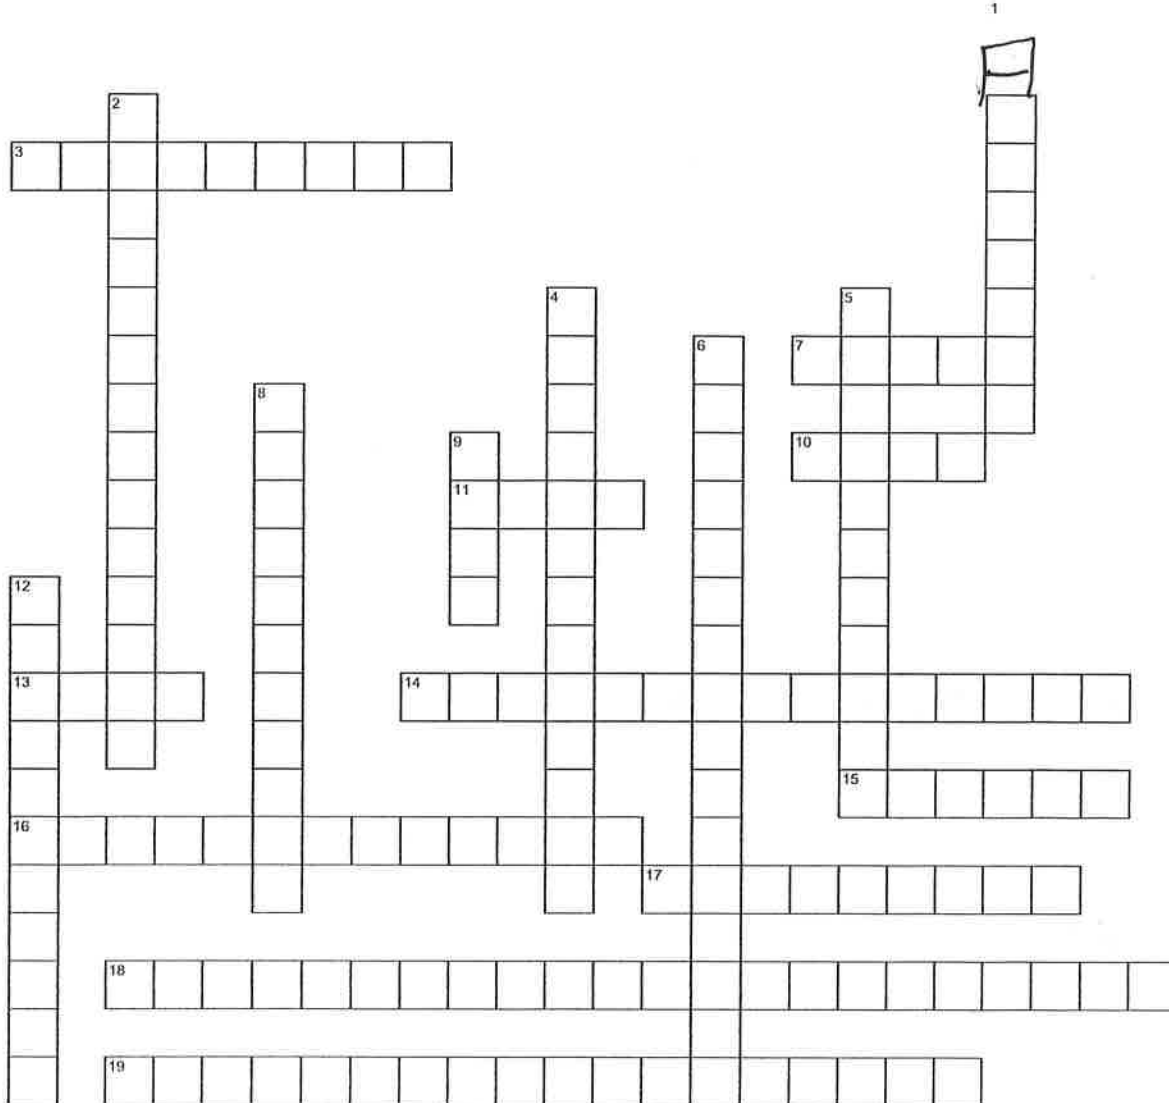

ACROSS

- 1 This party started out as an anti-slavery party before the Civil War
- 3 ~~this is the first step in policy making~~
- 5 ~~in this step, officials assess whether or not the policy has met their goal.~~
- 6 ~~in this step of policy making, officials debate and revise policies~~
- 9 in the 1800s, this party favored a strong national government
- 10 a statement of the party's principles is found in this
- 12 this group and the Federalists were the first political parties in the US.
- 13 people who are not satisfied with major political parties form these parties
- 15 Getting candidates elected is the goal of these
- 17 an example of this type of political party would be one that deals with women's issues or abortion
- 18 these people provided information on public issues and help government official function more effectively
- 19 the purpose of these is to collect campaign contributions and to fund campaigns

DOWN

- 2 when groups share power
- 4 These are the main sponsors of political action committees. Their goal is to persuade officials to actively support their interests
- 7 ~~a public demonstration is an example of this type of mobilization~~
- 8 this party wants less government regulation, is against minimum wage, opposes same sex marriage and abortion and favors tax cuts
- 11 Examples of citizens groups are the ALCU and this
- 14 Socialist, Reform and Green are this type of party
- 16 this party attracts minorities, favors regulating business and gun ownership, and wants a strong central government to solve problems

Chapter 9

www.CrosswordWeaver.com

ACROSS

- 3 this type of poll is a sampling of a small number of people
- 7 businesses, new organizations and public officials use these
- 10 this type of poll is considered unethical
- 11 this type of poll is used on election day to predict a winner before the polls close, and can determine the voting patterns of men and women
- 13 when politicians try to convince reporters and the public that their version of events is correct
- 14 this person advises candidates on how to present a positive image to voters
- 15 these events attract press

coverage

- 16 is this is small, the results are close to the opinions of the population
- 17 this technique takes advantage of people's desire to conform
- 18 process in which people form their political attitudes and values. The first and most important agent is family
- 19 when a small group of people is selected who are representative of the whole population

DOWN

- 1 our founding fathers said this was important to guard against government corruption
- 2 Print media, electronic media and this are how Americans get their news

- 4 this is the sum of many views
- 5 media consultants use these to test the appeal of campaign messages
- 6 when reporters catch a candidate doing something that embarrasses them
- 8 negative campaigning
- 9 public officials do this with information to expose wrongdoing, get support for a proposal or spin the way an event is covered
- 12 this persuasive technique is used when famous people endorse a candidate