

Government Chapter 1

www.CrosswordWeaver.com

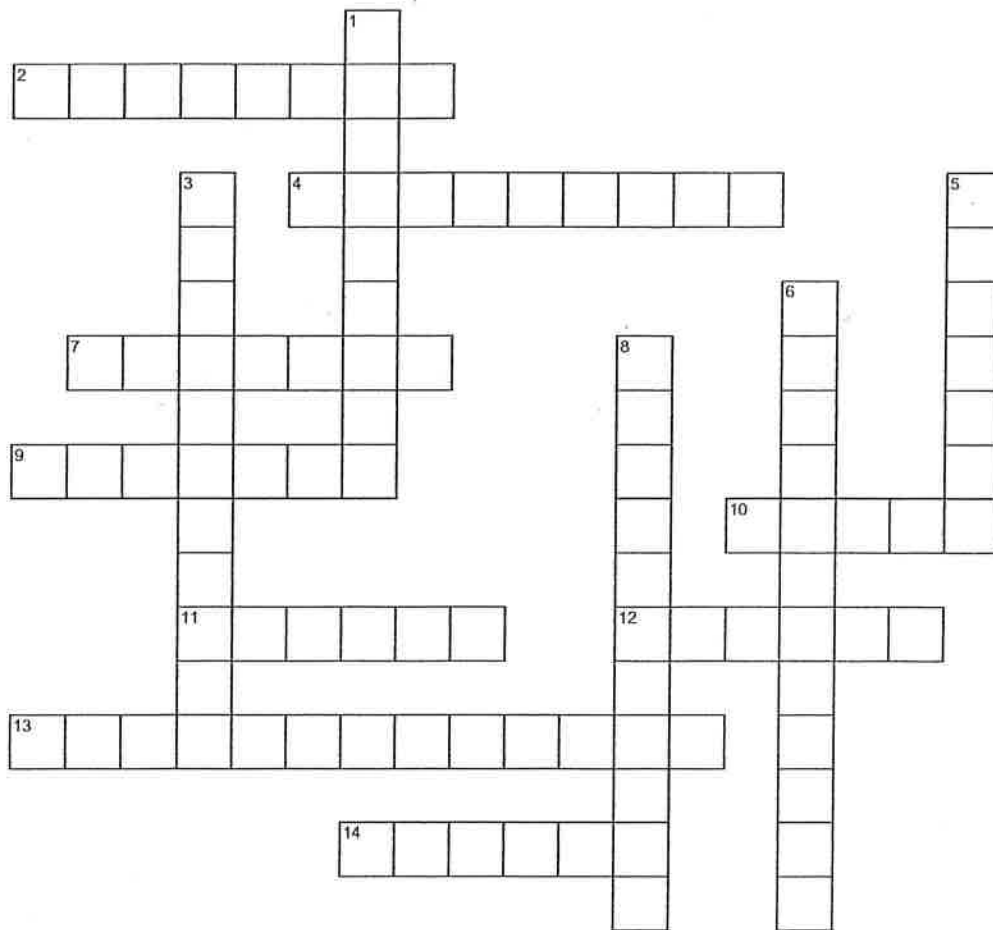

ACROSS

- 1 according to this theory, if a ruler abuses his power he should be removed from power
- 7 this tactic was used by Cesar Chavez to improve the lives of California farm workers
- 10 institutions and officials organized to establish and carry out public policy
- 12 If the Chinese ruler ruled in a moral manner he has this
- 13 more than one person can consume these without diminishing them. One example is a library.
- 15 coercion and this are considered the basic building blocks of government
- 16 people's acceptance of the ruler's authority means the ruler has this. If people no longer follow the ruler, they lose this
- hope to win demands by shaming the opposition
- 5 this is purposeful and involves collective action
- 6 a person who uses amoral tactics or tricks is called this
- 8 Rome's destruction of Carthage is an example of this political tactic
- 9 an independent country in which people share a common culture
- 11 the right to exercise supreme power and authority over a region, a group or oneself
- 13 this is the central concern of all governments
- 14 according to the Divine Right of Kings theory, authority comes from _____

DOWN

- 2 people who have this have the right to use power. It is the legal right or power to give orders and enforce rules
- 3 Using this political tactic, one will give up something to get something
- 4 this tactic was used by Rosa Parks and is characterized by people who

Government Chapter 2 crossword

www.CrosswordWeaver.com

ACROSS

- 2 this is the oldest form of government still in use today. Like a dictatorship, one leader holds the power with is more efficient but can also lead to the abuse of power
- 4 this began as an attempt to correct an unequal distribution of wealth
- 7 a country with a large and diverse population is most likely to have this system of government; which divides power between national and regional governments
- 9 with this form of government, power is more centralized
- 10 this type of economy is the most common. China and the US have these.
- 11 this ideology is built on the idea of racial superiority
- 12 in this type of democracy, frequent meetings and elections are very time consuming
- 13 in this type of democracy, the party with the legislative majority selects the prime minister
- 14 production of high quality goods and services is a function of this type of economy. profit motive and supply and demand drive the production of goods and services

DOWN

- 1 in this type of government, citizens are ruled by religious law
- 3 in this type of economy, the standard of living is low
- 5 in this type of economy, the government does all of the planning
- 6 in this type of democracy, the executive and legislative powers are separate to avoid the abuse of power
- 8 in this system, and the local or regional governments have the most power. The central government is too weak to be effective