

American Government: Chapter 8 Review

www.CrosswordWeaver.com

ACROSS

- 1 This party started out as an anti-slavery party before the Civil War
- 3 this is the first step in policy making
- 5 in this step, officials assess whether or not the policy has met their goal.
- 6 in this step of policy making, officials debate and revise policies
- 9 in the 1800s, this party favored a strong national government
- 10 a statement of the party's principles is found in this
- 12 this group and the Federalists were the first political parties in the US.
- 13 people who are not satisfied with major political parties form these parties
- 15 Getting candidates elected is the goal of these
- 17 an example of this type of political party would be one that deals with women's issues or abortion
- 18 these people provided information on public issues and help government official function more effectively
- 19 the purpose of these is to collect campaign contributions and to fund campaigns

DOWN

- 2 when groups share power
- 4 These are the main sponsors of political action committees. Their goal is to persuade officials to actively support their interests
- 7 a public demonstration is an example of this type of mobilization
- 8 this party wants less government regulation, is against minimum wage, opposes same sex marriage and abortion and favors tax cuts
- 11 Examples of citizens groups are the ALCU and this
- 14 Socialist, Reform and Green are this type of party
- 16 this party attracts minorities, favors regulating business and gun ownership, and wants a strong central government to solve problems