

Antigone Character Sketches

Name _____

Date _____

Period _____

Instructions: Read the character sketches on page 297 and consider what they imply about each character. Then, use this chart to analyze each character's motivation and make predictions about their behavior.

Character	List three adjectives to describe how this character feels.	Based on what you have read, why does the character feel this way?	Based on how the character feels, what do you predict (s)he will do in this play?	How do you think the character will justify his/her actions?
Creon	Sad Angry Vengeful	Creon is sad and angry that his nephews are dead, and vengeful that his decree was disobeyed.	Creon will out his anger on the person who disobeyed him.	Because he is the king, he believes his subjects should obey his rules without question.
Antigone
Ismene
Haemon
The Chorus
The Guard				