

Military Careers

Speak with a recruiter:

<https://request.todaysmilitary.com/>

ASVAB (The Armed Services Vocational Aptitude Battery)

<https://www.officialasvab.com/>

- Use the website above to:
 - Prepare for the ASVAB
 - Understand ASVAB scores
 - ASVAB Fact Sheet

Army:

<https://www.goarmy.com/how-to-join/steps.html>

1. Speak with a recruiter
2. Take a placement exam (ASVAB)
3. Complete a physical exam
4. Army career match
5. Sign a contract and prepare for basic training

Marine Corps:

<https://www.marines.com/become-a-marine/requirements.html>

<https://www.marines.com/become-a-marine/requirements/general.html>

1. Meet eligibility requirements
 - a. High School diploma
 - b. Pass a criminal background check
 - c. Have no felony convictions
 - d. Pass the initial strength test
2. ASVAB
3. Speak with a recruiter

Air Force:

<https://www.airforce.com/how-to-join/join-the-air-force>

1. Apply through a recruiter
2. Aptitude testing (ASVAB)
3. Physical and mental screening
4. Prepare for basic military training
5. Requirements
 - a. Body Mass Index (BMI) range of 17.5 to 27.5 to determine height-to-weight ratio for body composition. When a recruit is outside of this BMI range, recruiters will use a body fat measurement (BFM) with a maximum range of 26% for males and 36% for females
 - b. eye refraction level of no worse than + or - 8.0
 - c. High school diploma

- d. Review of criminal record
- e. No illegal drug use

Navy:

<https://www.navy.com/joining>

1. Talk with a recruiter
2. High school diploma
3. ASVAB qualifying score
4. Pass the military entrance processing station medical exam
5. Meet the physical, mental and moral standards of the navy