3) Superintendent and Directors Reports

Superintendent Josh Hurt

- We are thankful to return to in-person instruction.
- Thank you to our transportation department for getting up early and braving the weather to check roads for the safety of our students.
- While we recognize the need to be open, safety is always our top priority.

- Thank you to the new board members for agreeing to serve Metcalfe County Schools. January is School Board Recognition Month, and we are excited about our new team and ready to work together to move the district forward.
- SRO Adam Avery has accepted a new state-level position. We are happy for him.
- Congratulations to the Lady Hornets for winning the 4th Region All “A” Classic Basketball Tournament. They will be competing at State in Owensboro later this month.

Joseph Eaton – MCHS

- Operation Hornet Hoodie was a success with every student in Metcalfe County High School getting a new sweatshirt. Thanks to our tremendous community sponsors. Mrs. Kelly Shaw took the lead on the project and was assisted by other teachers.
- Seniors Alyssa Williams and Emily Jesse brought home awards from the HOSA Club Regional Conference. Emily placed 3rd in the Medical Assisting Exam, and Alyssa placed 1st in the Research Poster Competition.
- January Graduation is 3:30 tomorrow in the Auditorium. Seven students are graduating.
- Mrs. Scroggy is having a FAFSA day tomorrow from 9-12 for Seniors who are attending or thinking about attending college. This event allows students and parents to meet with a representative and get help creating their accounts.
- The Senior Beta Convention was moved to February because of the weather, and MCHS has a candidate for State Beta President with Addison Morgan this year.
- Kassady London and Lucas Rice recently received the KSBA CTE Student Grant in the amount of $250.
- WKU Honors Band:
 - Ava Ballard
 - Shayla Garmon
 - Blake Thurman
 - Caleb Houchens
 - Isaac Grindle
 - Daniel Robertson
- Campbellsville Honors Band
 - Ava Ballard
 - Shayla Garmon
 - Atticus Simpson
 - Blake Thurman
 - Ashton Stephens
 - Chloe Huff
 - Caleb Houchens
 - Daniel Robertson
 - Lucas Whitlow
- District basketball game tomorrow night at home against Cumberland County.
- The Lady Hornets recently won the 4th Region All “A” Championship and are going to Owensboro next week to take on Menifee County in the first round of the state tournament.
- Kassady London recently reached 2,000 points in her career as a Lady Hornet.
- Cade Button and Hudson Jessie both reached the 1,000-point milestone.
- Jozie Allen, Aubrey Glass, Kassady London, and Cade Button were named to the 4th Region All “A” Classic All-Tournament Team.
- Kassady London and Collin Shive were both named to the All-Academic Team
- MCHS plans to take a pep bus to Owensboro.

Michael Gill – MCES

- MCES had two huge crowds at the December Christmas Program in the Old School Gym. The choir, students, and sponsors (Stephanie Jessee and Aimee Sexton) all did a wonderful job.
- Thanks to Patty Bunch and Lori Eskridge for working on our Angel Tree program over Christmas break to make sure students in need had presents.
- Teachers are working to get back into their regular routine with the winter weather recently interrupting classes. We are thankful to get a full week in for the month of January. I-Ready testing has been moved to next week, starting with 3-4-5 grade students. K-1-2 students will test the following week. I-Ready provides teachers with an update on how individual students are performing academically at the midway point of the school year.
- MCES Elementary Beta just returned home yesterday from competing in the Beta State Competition. Several students will be competing at the National Convention in Orlando this summer:
 - Everett Gonsalves: 2nd place Health and P.E. Academic Exam
 - Madilyn Osbon: 4th place Social Studies Academic Exam
 - Raye Ballard: 1st place Onsite Painting – STATE CHAMPION!
 - Campaign skit 4th place –
 - Matthew Lunz
 - Oliver Scott
 - Raye Ballard
 - Bailey Morgan
 - Parker Bennett
 - Raylee Fields
 - Hadley Glass
 - Ellie Trobaugh
 - Josie Saltsman
 - Madilyn Osbon
 - Shay Hendrick
 - Marley Reed
 - Bentley Miller
 - Mia Thompson
 - Skylin Harmon
 - Harper Parnell
- MCES has back-to-back Beta vice presidents. Payton Morgan was elected this year and will take over for Tymber Garrett, who was elected last year. Congratulations to Payton, and great job to Tymber for representing MCES.
- MCES Elementary Beta sponsors were presented with the Educator of Excellence Award:
 - Lindsey Glass
 - Miranda Stratton
 - Lauran Dover

Daniel Glass: "I attended Beta, and our students did a phenomenal job. Everyone would be very proud of their representation. Tymber did an amazing job on her speech in front of the entire convention. Keep up the good work, Mr. Gill."

Matt Shirley – Facilities/Digital Learning

- The turf on the new football field is about 99% complete.
- The lights on the new football field and tennis courts are set and ready for operation in the spring. Baseball lights should be set in the spring.
- Work is underway on the building underneath the bleachers.
- The football bleachers will arrive in February and take about ten weeks to install. The press box will be on top of the bleachers.
- The scoreboard has arrived.
- There has been a pause on the baseball field renovations due to weather.

Jenny Stotts – MCMS

- MCMS had two NTI snow days this month. Students have done well getting their work finished. Teachers are collecting NTI data and will turn it in on Tuesday.
- We are so thankful for our subs in the building for absent staff. Special thanks to Mrs. Stacey Slinker, Mr. Hurt, and the board for encouraging people, especially former students, to the sub. A 7th-grade science teacher has been on medical leave and will be returning on Feb. 5. This past Tuesday, another MCMS teacher had a baby. She will be on leave until March 10.
- On Jan. 9, Mrs. Jenny attended a GRREC meeting on Marzano's New Art and Science of Teaching. It was a jam-packed session with strategies to improve student learning and school culture. MCMS plans on having GRREC complete this PD in August.
- On Wednesday, 7th-grade students attended a FRYSC Truth and Consequences event. It was an activity designed to teach students what happens if they make bad choices. Special thanks to Mrs. Judy Thompson and Mrs. Amy London for creating the event.
- MCMS Jr. Beta is currently in Lexington. We hope they return with lots of winners.
- This week, students have been completing their winter diagnostic on I-Ready.
- The nine weeks ends on Thursday, Jan. 16. Report cards will go home on Friday, Jan. 24.

Herby Bunch – Transportation

- Some of our buses have been running double routes due to a shortage of in-house drives. Some drivers have to be out daily on field trips or other events.
- We are currently recruiting new bus drivers and have a couple in training.
- We will have two new buses arriving soon. They have been on order for over a year.

Allen Trotter – DPP

- The Comprehensive District Improvement Plan is ready for review and board approval. Directors have worked in phases on it since August. We just completed phase 3. The plan is compiled through a variety of data sources reviewed throughout the year.
- The 2025-206 school calendar, developed by the district's calendar committee, is ready for review and approval. We try to keep aligned with neighboring districts for trade school schedules.

Mr. Hurt: "The board is encouraged to review the CDIP and contact us with any questions/concerns. We are always open to suggestions and welcome the board's feedback."

Jamie Moss – Exceptional Ed

- If approved, action item 5D will allow Charlotte Roach to provide hearing-impaired and/or vision-impaired services to students in Adair and Monroe Counties.

Stacey Slinker – HR

- Several former students have signed up to be substitute teachers. We are very pleased with the work they are doing.

Rachel Dial – Instruction/DAC

- Deeper Learning work continues, with the Portrait of a Hornet initiative moving forward.

Cheyenne Garmon – Finance

- Action item 5c is the draft budget for FY 2025-2026. This is the basic budget. The tentative budget will have more accurate numbers with allocations in the next couple of months. This budget process leads to the working budget that the district will operate from beginning in July.

Torrie Osbon – PR/Grants

- The district is working on applying for a grant for new AEDs.
