DR. TASHA LOUIS-NANCE ELECTED VICE-CHAIR OF SC-SIC BOARD OF TRUSTEES

ORANGEBURG, S.C. – Orangeburg County School District (OCSD) is excited to announce that Dr. Tasha Louis-Nance, OCSD Coordinator of Social Emotional Learning and Behavioral Support, has been elected as Vice-Chair of the South Carolina School Improvement Council (SC-SIC) Board of Trustees.

School Improvement Councils (SICs) play a crucial role in the school improvement process by advising principals and schools on achieving meaningful progress. SICs are made up of representatives from parents, teachers, students, and community members, along with the school principal and other ex-officio members. State law requires every K-12 public school in South Carolina to convene an SIC to promote school enhancement initiatives.

Dr. Louis-Nance's leadership in her newly elected role will support the advancement of school improvement efforts throughout the state. As Vice-Chair, she will help guide SC-SIC in its mission to adopt meaningful change and innovation across South Carolina's schools.

This recognition is proof to Dr. Louis-Nance's dedication to enhancing social-emotional learning and behavioral support, as well as her broader commitment to the betterment of education across South Carolina.
