My Philosophy of Care:

Starting my career in emergency medicine made me realize the importance and need for accessible, and affordable healthcare. I am passionate about being able to provide cost-effective healthcare solutions and making it personalized for my patients.

Clinical Interests:

Teaching and practicing evidenced-based medicine and always learning. Technology advancements in medicine through interactive care models. Shared-decision making through strong relationships with my patients.

Personal Interests:

My family with my husband, daughter, and son.

Traveling the world, and the goal of visiting all 50 states by the time my children graduate high school.

All sports, but especially golf and soccer. I am an avid supporter of our local teams, especially the Brewers and Badgers.

I love to cook and bake.
