Dr. Bernard E. Frost

DR. BERNARD E. FROST APPOINTED TO SCASA EXECUTIVE AND SCDE TEACHING AND LEARNING ADVISORY COMMITTEES

ORANGEBURG, S.C. – Orangeburg County School District (OCSD) proudly congratulates Dr. Bernard E. Frost, OCSD Assistant Superintendent of Curriculum and Instruction, on his appointment to two prestigious committees during the South Carolina Association of School Administrators (SCASA) Instructional Leaders Conference. Dr. Frost has been named to both the SCASA Executive Committee and the South Carolina Department of Education (SCDE) Teaching and Learning Advisory Committee.

These appointments reflect Dr. Frost's dedication to educational leadership and his commitment to advancing instructional practices throughout the state. In these roles, he will contribute to shaping statewide strategies for teaching and learning, ensuring that South Carolina schools continue to provide high-quality educational opportunities for all students.
OCSD is honored to have Dr. Frost represent the district in these impactful capacities, as his leadership will positively influence education across the state.
