Elementary Principal: Janet Asheim's Report:

- Janet will be applying for the Best in Class Grant for the 2025-2026 school year
- PD day will focus on CPR training
- Assessments are finishing up

High School Principal: Heidi Newgard

- ICU program in the morning is working well for students.
- We are working with teachers to make sure quality work is getting turned in.
- Fargo Davies is coming next week to help with standard based grading.

Athletic Advisor: Trevor Savelkoul

- Basketball started for the girls. We moved up six 8th graders to play on C squad. We have a total of 26 kids out for girls' basketball
- Jr high boys' basketball started with 12 kids-games will start next week

Mohall-Lansford-Sherwood Public School District #1

- Chairs for games are ordered and we hope to see them next week

Superintendent: Keith Campbell

- Calendar input at 3:30 on Wednesday
- Negotiation seminar is February 6th and 7th
- Power School breach happened December 21st – December 22nd
- Legislative assembly has started

Activity committee:

They have the gym floor removal lined up and Jwood is putting a gym floor design together for us to approve or make changes.

Fundraising is coming along with approximately 70,000 fundraised, but we are still looking for more donations as the project will be costly.

Cross Country didn't fall into budget and we didn't want other activities to struggle by adding one more activity.

Old Business:

- Motion made by Thurstan Johnson and seconded by Vance Undlin for activity bus pay increase of 10% for large bus and 4% for small buses.

New business:

- Our 8 month CD came up for renewal. Jake Kaufmann made the motion to renew the CD for 8 months again, seconded by Andy Grondahl. M/C
- Vance Undlin made a motion to approve Mrs. Asheim's resignation and 2nd by Jake Kaufman. M/C
- Vance Undlin made a motion to approve Mrs. Gehringer's resignation and 2nd by Andy Grondahl. M/C
- NEGOTIATIONS: Pursuant to NDCC Section 15.1-16-11 (1) (c) The Board of Mohall Lansford Sherwood School District will post a notice of intent to consider a petition for recognition of the representative organization.
