		Kirstin M. explained that the proctors will most likely be a new set of people as many of this year's proctors, who are temporary employees, have found permanent positions after this school year. Silvia D. asked if there would be trainings for ELPAC proctors. Kirstin M. responded that yes, there will be trainings prior to testing needs of school sites. Silvia D. asked Mark C. to share updates on Venture. Mark C. noted that the re-classification criteria has been altered to better measure re-classification of students. There is a new instrument that teachers are being taught to use that will be a more consistent and reliable tool to measure student assessments. No additional comments or questions. Meeting adjourned at 2:37pm.
