The students at Madison Elementary School are pooling together their arts and crafts skills to show their appreciation for the officers of the Fargo Police Department. The students will join together to craft tie blankets Thursday that they will donate to the FPD.

Madison Elementary School is celebrating Kindness Week this week with activities, dress up days, this service project, and opportunities to reflect on Social Emotional Learning. Theme days this week are Peace, Love, and Tie Dye (wear tie dye), Crazy for Kindness (dress crazy), Let's Team Up for Kindness (wear sports team gear), Dream of a Kinder Future (dress in pajamas), and Madison Students Have Big Hearts (wear red, pink, or hearts).

The students conducted a vote for where the blankets would be donated, with the Fargo Police Department winning. Last year, Madison donated tie blankets to the Red River Children's Advocacy Center.
