- Guest Speaker from UC Davis

- Collaborated with small groups and eventually discussed words that related to “Youth”, “Participatory”, “Action”, and “Research”

- Understanding that these words entail making a positive difference

- Discussed the “Boat Metaphor”: the highs and lows of a hierarchical system (ex. Titanic)

- Project Example: Students Protesting DCPS Budget Cuts for issues such sanitary bathroom conditions, Researched & conducted surveys to model demographic data of students and the issues they faced <Student Involvement & Action>

- Nine Stepping Stones fliers allocated to representatives

SAB Work Plan:

- Phase 7- Utilize demographic data and feedback from FCUSD students to develop and initiate a workable plan

- Analysis on representation of FCUSD student voice: Majority of respondents ranked their power of student voice on 1 and 3 scales, indicating the need for more empowerment of student voice

- Student Issues Identified from last year’s google form responses: Dress Code, Student Punishment, Peer Harassment, Affinity Groups, Curriculum and Diversity, Accountability

- Subcommittees for SAB reps: Dress Code, Mental Health, School Culture & Climate
- These committees will meet on their own time to take action towards the above issues

Action Items:

- Getting involved in one (or more) of the three SAB subcommittees
- District Safety Advisory Committee meeting on October 5th from 4-6:30 PM at the Cordova Lane Center
- Start gathering ideas for the District-Wide Cultural Celebration Event
- Think about Student Board Member positions and whether the two positions should be allocated based on city (Folsom/Rancho Cordova) or high school
