Why start conversations when they are young

1. Build a strong relationship foundation
2. Develop trust between you and your child
3. Be more comfortable talking about uncomfortable topics
4. Help develop your child's critical thinking and problem-solving skills
5. Support your child's development of resiliency

These conversations will help your child stay safe online and offline.

Inappropriate Content

- Pornography
- Excessive violence
- Hate speech
- Risky or illegal behaviors

Be a trusted adult

Listen

without judgment or shame

Help

and take action

Remain calm

when a child reaches out

Respect

their boundaries

Help

them identify other trusted adults they can reach out to

Be kind to yourself; it is ok to have strong emotions, but try to remain calm

What you can do

- Don't frighten them
- Listen attentively and stay calm
- Tell them it's not their fault
- Answer questions
- Help them report it

What they should do

- Turn off the screen
- Use the back button
- Tell a trusted adult
- Report it to the website or app
- Report to CyberTipline.org

Inappropriate Content

- Inappropriate or illegal behavior
- Offensive language
- Threats of violence
- Underage drinking or drug use
- Hate speech

Online Privacy

What's OK? What's not OK?

- Pictures of family and friends
- Personal information
- Conversations with unknown people in an online game
- Creating videos on streaming services
- 'Checking in' or sharing current location online
- Sending/viewing/sharing explicit or provocative pictures

Personal information

- Passwords
- Home address
- Location

Risks of Sharing Personal Information

Online Scams

Hacking

Identity Theft

Stalking

What you can do

- Establish rules about what they can share
- Learn about reporting options
- Help them set privacy settings
- Help them create strong passwords
- Talk about friends lists
- Create a safety plan

Online Enticement

Online enticement involves an individual communicating with someone believed to be a child via the internet with the intent to commit a sexual offense or abduction and includes sextortion.

How do solicitations occur?

- Most occur on social networking sites
- Most occur among older teens
- Most teens are solicited by peers
- Most are not bothered by it

Offenders groom children by:

- Exploiting their natural curiosity
- Gradually introducing explicit images
- Using adult status to control a child's behavior
- Offering gifts like cell phones and gift cards

Grooming

Someone trying to groom children might:

- Flatter them
- Send them gifts
- Discuss inappropriate adult subjects, such as dating or sex
- Ask them to keep secrets
- Turn them against their family and friends
- Share or ask for revealing images
- Blackmail them
- Make them feel guilty or ashamed
- Ask to meet face-to-face

Receiving gifts

Calling unknown numbers

Minimizing the screen

Signs of Grooming

Check if your child is...

Rejecting family and friends

Getting upset when not online

What you can do

- Talk to your child about relationships
- Set a policy about meeting offline for older teens
- Know your child's online friends
- Teach your child the warning signs
- Call the police
- Report to CyberTipline.org

Kids are capable

Chat log as reported to NCMEC's CyberTipline.

Report to the CyberTipline

- Anyone who sends your child photos or videos containing obscene content
- Anyone who asks your child to send sexual images
- Anyone speaking to your child in a sexual manner
- Anyone who asks your child to meet in person

Sexting

Sending or posting nude or partially nude images.

Research suggests that:

- 19.3% of teens have sexted
- 34.8% of teens say they have received a sext

Why are they sexting?

- To be funny
- To impress a crush
- Peer pressure or threats
- Experimenting with relationships, sexual behavior, and boundaries

The background features a bright yellow sun with a textured, hand-painted appearance in the center. On either side of the sun are stylized blue trees with dark blue outlines and white highlights, giving them a soft, painterly look. The overall style is whimsical and artistic.

Your Photo Fate

Consequences of Sexting

- Humiliation
- Bullying
- Blackmail
- School discipline
- Police involvement

Addressing Sexting

- Start these conversations early
- Give real-life examples
- Discuss healthy sexual relationships
- Talk about ways an image can spread online
- Talk about resharing
- Report to CyberTipline.org

Sextortion

Sextortion is a form of child sexual exploitation where children are threatened or blackmailed, most often with the possibility of sharing with the public nude or sexual images of them, by a person who demands additional sexual content, sexual activity, or money from the child. This crime may happen when a child has shared an image with someone.

What can you do

- Do not comply with the demands
- Report it to the app

IS

BULLYING?

amaze

Cyberbully

Victim

Bystander

Upstander

What you can do

- Support your child and problem solve together
- Consider saving the evidence
- Block cyberbullies
- Set up new accounts
- Talk to the school
- Report to CyberTipline.org

Cyberbullying Behaviors

- Quickly switches screens or closes program
- Uses the computer at all hours
- Gets unusually upset if they cannot use the computer
- Avoids discussions about what they are doing
- Uses multiple online accounts

How to prevent it

Monitor and intervene in your child's online behavior in the same way you would "offline" behavior.

- Establish expectations for online and offline behavior
- Set consequences for cyberbullying
- Model good online and offline behavior

Talk to your child about being an upstander

- Establish expectations for reporting
- Encourage them to stand up for the victim
- Help them report the cyberbullying to an adult or teacher
- Talk to your child about not forwarding mean or inappropriate content about another person

Tech Options

- Install filtering and monitoring software
- Consult your cell phone provider
- Research options for other mobile devices
- Look at individual apps
- Explore built-in security features
