

Thomas M. Bancroft, Jr. Class of 1947

Tom Bancroft graduated from Princeton after Middlesex. He then served in the U.S. Navy before becoming Executive Vice-President of Turner Halsey Co., Inc., a textile company. He later became President of Mt. Vernon Mills.

He also was named Director of the National Reinsurance Corporation and served as Chairman of the New York Racing Association from 1983-1989.

