

Martin R. Hoffmann

Class of 1950

Martin Hoffmann left Middlesex for Princeton, where he graduated in 1954. He served in the U.S. Army from 1954-1956 and graduated from the University of Virginia Law School in 1961. Following stints as an assistant U.S. attorney, minority counsel for the House Judiciary Committee, and general counsel for the Department of Defense, Martin was named Secretary of the Army in 1975. He held the post until 1977. He then joined the firm of Gardner, Carton & Douglas and later became vice president and general counsel of Digital Equipment Corporation.

