

Honorable J. William Middendorf II Class of 1943

Bill Middendorf went on to graduate from Harvard after Middlesex and also earned an MBA from NYU. From 1969 to 1973, he served as Ambassador to the Netherlands. In 1974, he was named Secretary of the Navy, a position he held until 1977.

Bill went on to serve as Ambassador to the Organization of American States and Ambassador to the European Communities.

