

The Honorable William B. Richardson Class of 1966

Bill Richardson graduated from Tufts after Middlesex and began a long and distinguished career in public service. After working as a staff member for the U.S. House of Representatives, the U.S. State Department, and the U.S. Senate Foreign Relations Committee, he served as a Representative from New Mexico in the U.S. House of Representatives from 1983-1997. He became the U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations in 1997 and in 1998 was named Secretary of Energy. In 2002, he was elected Governor of New Mexico.

