

Judge Sidney O. Smith, Jr. Class of 1941

Sidney Smith attended Harvard after Middlesex, where he graduated in 1947 after serving three years in the Army during World War II. He earned his law degree from the University of Georgia, School of Law. He was nominated by Lyndon Johnson to a seat on the U.S. District Court, Northern District of Georgia in 1965. In 1968, Sidney was named chief judge of that same court, a position he held until 1974. He has worked in private practice in Atlanta since that time.

