

Dianne Kuhl Home Economics Scholarship

This scholarship is in memory of Dianne Kuhl who was a postal worker for 30 years serving the Chelsea community. She grew up on a cattle farm in North Dakota. Over her 74 years she was avid at canning food, gardening, growing flowers, quilting, sewing, knitting, crocheting, painting, wallpapering, furniture restoration, cooking and cleaning.

The Dianne Kuhl Home Economics Scholarship is for current CHS seniors that have a passion for many of those traits.

Criteria: Chelsea High School senior who will graduate in the current year, who plans on continuing their education with an accredited university, college or vocational school.

Name: _____
First Last

Address _____
Street/Number City Zip

Telephone (____) _____ Email: _____

College you will be attending: _____

Field of Study: _____

I participate in 4-H or Community Fair activities.

Essay prompt

Describe activities you've been involved in that reflect her skills and dedication to family, home and self-sufficiency.

No late applications will be considered.

