We'd like to thank Congressman Mark E. Amodei's office and the Carson Valley Lion's Club for the American flag provided to GES to replace our current flag that was battered by the wind.

Auditions for Missoula Children's Theatre production of Pinocchio will be held on Monday, March 3 from 2:00-4:00pm in the GES multipurpose room. All GES students are welcome! There is no experience required; just bring a positive attitude. Please see the back for more details. Students must turn in their permission slips to the office by March 3rd to attend auditions.

I give permission for _____ to attend try outs. I agree I will come to GES at 4:00pm to bring food and/or pick up my student.

Print name

Signature

(There is no guarantee that everyone who auditions will be cast in the play.)

At 4:00 pm, all parents of participating students should come to the GES MPR. If your child is 8 years or older, bring a dinner meal (ready to eat-no microwaves available) with you in case they were cast in the play.

At 4:00pm, the following will happen:

1. Students who are 7 years old & younger and older students who were not cast in the play will go home.
2. Students who are at least 8 years old and were cast in the play will stay until 6:30 pm.
3. All students cast to be in the play will go home with a written practice schedule for the week.

Information to Consider:

If students have other after school activities, i.e., basketball, dance, etc., arrangements can be made for them to still participate in the play. When you pick your child up, feel free to talk to a school employee about any concerns.

Performances will be Friday, March 7 at 2:00 pm for a school assembly and 5:30pm for all GES families.

Tickets will be sold March 4th—March 7th in the GES Office. $5.00 per person. Proceeds from the tickets sales will help pay for the this years production and hopefully a deposit on next year's production.

Please remember, All GES students are welcome! There is no experience required; just bring a positive attitude.
