Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory
Edward Teller Science Scholarship
Livermore Valley Joint Unified School District

Edward Teller was a co-founder of the Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory (LLNL). Dr. Teller's work at the Laboratory is only one element of his long multidimensional and distinguished life as a scientist, educator and citizen. In honor of Dr. Edward Teller, LLNL is sponsoring scholarships in the amount of $2,500.00 each to a graduating senior at Livermore and Granada High Schools.

ELIGIBILITY

Applicants must:

- Currently be a graduating senior
- Have acceptance as a full-time student at an accredited college or university
- Submit a completed scholarship application by the posted deadline

SELECTION PROCESS / CRITERIA

The school's science faculty will review the applications and in consultation with the department chairperson choose a recipient based upon the following criteria:

- Overall high school GPA
- GPA science courses
- Breadth of high school science coursework
- Achievement in extra-curricular science activities such as science fairs, independent research, etc.
- Student essay of 350 words or less answering the following question, "Why I believe I should receive the Edward Teller Scholarship for my achievements in science."

APPLICATION PROCESS

Applications will be available through the office of the Assistant Superintendent after April 1, 2025 and provided to each science teacher, the school's career center, and the Curriculum & Special Projects Department at the District Office. Completed applications must be returned to the science department chair by April 25, 2025. Late applications will not be accepted.

SELECTION AND AWARDS RECOGNITION

The science department faculty at each school will select the best-qualified student. The Department Chairperson will report the name of the recipient to the Assistant Superintendent who will provide Dr. Joanna Albala, LLNL Science Education Program manager, with the recipient names by May 2, 2025, along with the date, time and location of recipient's Senior Awards Night ceremony. This notification will include each recipient's full name, a brief description of their accomplishments, and education plans including the college or university they will attend in the following year.

An LLNL staff member will present the awards on Senior Awards Night.
