SEGUNDO DOMINGO EN TIEMPO ORDINARIO (Enero 19)

Perspectiva Salesiana

Como un primer paso para “darse a conocer”, esta primera demostración del poder divino de Jesús es modesta, por así decirlo. Aquí no hubo un saneamiento milagroso. No hubo exorcismo de demonios, en este caso él no resucitó a nadie de entre los Muertos. Por el contrario, él simplemente impidió que el proveedor de comida se quedara sin vino durante la recepción que siguió a la boda.

Muchas personas consideran esto como un mal uso –incluso un desperdicio – del poder Salvador de Jesús. Inicialmente incluso Jesús mismo parece sentir que su poder podría ser utilizado de mejor manera y después en otro lugar.

Pero San Francisco de Sales no opina igual. El observa que este Milagro tiene un significado que va más allá de lo que se puede observar a simple vista. Aquí hay un ejemplo de cómo el poder de Dios impregna todas las experiencias humanas, incluso las más ordinarias. Con esto nos referimos a la práctica de las “pequeñas virtudes,” una noción realmente valiosa para San Francisco de Sales, y el sello distintivo de su entendimiento del poder Salvador de Cristo. En su Tratado del Amor de Dios, Francisco de Sales escribió: “Es posible que una virtud muy pequeña tenga un valor mucho más grande para un alma en la cual el amor sagrado reina con un fervor que es más grande, que el martirio mismo en un alma en la que el amor es lánguido y débil.” (Libro 11, Capitulo 5) Puesto de otra forma, las pequeñas virtudes, la expresión del cuidado o de la preocupación durante circunstancias que parecen ordinarias, puede ser “más placentero a los ojos de Dios que las obras grandes y famosas que se hacen con poca caridad y devoción.”

Aun así, hay lugar para grandes manifestaciones de amor: “Yo no estoy diciendo que no debemos aspirar a las virtudes destacadas, pero si sostengo que debemos entrenarnos en las pequeñas virtudes ya que sin estas las obras grandes son falsas y engañosas.” (Stopp, Cartas Selectas, p. 159)

Jesús puede haber estado tentado a creer que convertir el agua en vino era una acción que estaba muy por debajo de su dignidad divina – quizás incluso su dignidad humana -. Al final las necesidades de los demás fueron más persuasivas que el deseo de “hacer un gran show / espectáculo” para los demás. Irónicamente, puede haber sido la Buena disposición de Jesús de emplear sus poderes celestiales para satisfacer una petición tan aparentemente ordinaria, lo que permitió que sus discípulos “empezaran a creer en él.”

Sus más famosas, maravillosas y únicas demostraciones de poder vinieron después. Pero así hubiera sido en la cruz del Calvario, o en una simple boda en Canaán, el poder, la promesa y la persona fueron una y la misma.

¿La moraleja de este milagro? Nada es muy pequeño para el Reino de Dios. ¿Podemos decir lo mismo de nosotros mismos?

AN OFTEN-ASKED QUESTION

Many times we have conversations with friends about what's normal and not-normal forgetfulness as we age. I think we've probably all asked ourselves, "Why am I here?" as we stand before a pantry, having forgotten why we're finding ourselves in that place.

A recent edition of the Golden Gazette listed ten early signs and symptoms of Alzheimer's and dementia and what's normal age-related changes for each. Five are listed here this week, the rest will follow next week.

Memory loss that disrupts daily life:

One of the most common signs of Alzheimer's disease, especially in the early stage, is forgetting recently learned information. Others include forgetting important dates or events, asking the same questions over and over, and increasingly needing to rely on memory aids (e.g., reminder notes and electronic devices) or family members for things formerly handled on one's own. A typical age-related change is sometimes forgetting names or appointments, but remembering them later.

Challenges in planning or solving problems:

Some people living with changes in their memory due to dementia may experience changes in their ability to develop and follow a plan or work with numbers. They may have trouble following a familiar recipe, keeping track of monthly bills, concentrating or taking much longer to do things than they did before. A typical age-related change is making occasional errors when managing finances or household bills.

Difficulty completing familiar tasks:

Those living with dementia-

related memory changes find it hard to complete daily tasks. Sometimes they have trouble driving to a familiar location or organizing a grocery list. A typical age-related change is occasionally needing help to use microwave settings or to record a TV show.

Confusion with time or place:

People living with cognitive decline can lose track of dates, seasons, and the passage of time. They may have trouble understanding something if it's not happening immediately. Sometimes they may forget where they are or how they got there. Typical age-related change is getting confused about the day of the week but figuring it out later.

Trouble understanding visual images and spatial relationships:

Some living with dementia could experience vision changes. This may lead to difficulty with balance or trouble reading. They may also have problems judging distance and determining color or contrast, causing issues with driving. Typical age-related changes are cataracts and other eye diseases.

Next week, we'll visit the other five symptoms of cognitive decline in contrast to what comes with normal aging, followed by a future column featuring healthy brain habits.

SENIOR MOVIE DAY

Free movie is on Wednesday, January 22 at Look Cinema, Reston Town Center. Doors open 9:00 am. Feature: "Nyad," a bio sports drama about swimmer Diana Nyad. Door prizes and free refreshments will be available prior to the movie at 10:00 am.

Elder Wisdom

The hard way to stay young is to eat right and exercise daily. The easy way is to lie about our age.

Join Us in Celebrating the Double OSFS Jubilee: A Year of Gratitude and Hope

Happy New Year! We are thrilled to invite our entire parish community to join in celebrating a momentous occasion in the life of the Church and the Oblates of St. Francis de Sales (OSFS). The year 2025 marks the Double OSFS Jubilee, commemorating 150 years since the founding of the Oblates of St. Francis de Sales and the death of Mother Mary de Sales Chappuis, whose vision and spirituality inspired this congregation.

This special jubilee, celebrated from January 1 to December 31, 2025, offers us a unique opportunity to reflect on the enduring legacy of faith, service, and hope handed down to us by our founders, Blessed Louis Brisson and Mother Mary de Sales Chappuis.

Key Dates to Remember

While we celebrate throughout the year, several significant dates invite us to honor our spiritual heritage:

- July 1875: The month Blessed Louis Brisson presented the proposed Constitutions to Pope Pius IX, who blessed their mission.
- October 7, 1875: The death of Mother Mary de Sales Chappuis, whose visionary leadership and faith remain a guiding light for the congregation.
- October 12: The Feast of Blessed Louis Brisson, a day of prayer and remembrance, celebrating the novitiate program that began in 1873 and the spiritual foundation of the congregation.
- December 21, 1875: The official founding date of the Oblates, commemorated with the Decretum Laudis granted by Pope Pius IX.

Pilgrims of Hope

In addition to the Double Jubilee, the Church celebrates the 2025 Great Jubilee: "Pilgrims of Hope". These two celebrations beautifully align, as the spirituality of St. Francis de Sales and Blessed Louis Brisson speaks deeply to the theme of hope in God's promises.

As we honor this double jubilee, let us embrace its message as a call to spiritual renewal and unity. Together, we can reflect on the heritage entrusted to us and find inspiration for our mission to serve God and one another with joyful hearts.

Join the Celebration

Throughout the year, we will hold a variety of events and observances to celebrate this jubilee, including special liturgies, reflections, and community gatherings. See page 3 for events coming up in the next few weeks, and stay tuned for updates on other events and ways you can participate.

We also invite you to learn more about the lives of Blessed Louis Brisson and Mother Mary de Sales Chappuis and their profound influence on Salesian spirituality. Their witness encourages us to live our faith fully and joyfully as members of the Body of Christ.

A Year of Gratitude and Renewal

As we celebrate the Double OSFS Jubilee, let us give thanks for the many blessings God has bestowed on us through the Oblates' mission and ministry. Let us also renew our commitment to sharing the Good News and living out the Gospel in our daily lives.

May this jubilee year be a time of grace for us all year—to celebrate our past, embrace our present, and look forward with hope to the future. Together, let us embark on this spiritual journey of faith, gratitude, and joy.
