

Restroom

School Expectation: Respect, Responsibility, Self-Control, Safety

Rationale: Students will be able to use the restroom quickly and safely.

Using the Restroom

Steps to perform skill:

1. Wait for teacher to tell you to enter.
2. Walk in using hall basics.
3. Keep hands, feet, and all other objects to yourself at all times.
4. After using the restroom, flush the toilet.
5. Wash and dry hands quietly (1 pump of soap, three pulls of paper towel).
6. Place trash in the trash can.
7. Exit the restroom without talking.
8. Report any problems to the teacher.

Restroom Examples/Non-examples

I will keep my mouth quiet in the restroom.

I will unbuckle my pants before I get into the stall.

I will keep my feet off of the toilet.

When I get a paper towel, I will only pump the handle three times.

I will take a nice long drink at the water fountain.

I will knock on a closed door to make sure there isn't anyone inside.

I will look under someone's stall when I am in the restroom.

I will splash soap all over the sink.

I will come out of the restroom and scream to the teacher that someone got too much soap.

I will hang on the stall doors.

I will race my friend to the stall.

I will pretend the trashcan is a basketball hoop and throw my paper towel in it from across the restroom.

I will stand on toilet and look over the stall doors.

I will walk into the stall, and then I will unbuckle my pants.

My friend and I will stand in the restroom talking about our weekend instead of going to the bathroom.

I will open a stall while someone is using it.

I will get one pump of soap and wash my hands neatly.

I will continue getting paper towels until they touch the floor.

I will not look under the stalls.

At the water fountain I count; "1, 2, 3, that's enough for me."

I will use a quiet voice in the hallway.

I will not hang on the stall doors.

I will use walking feet in the restroom.

I will walk to the trash can and drop in the paper towel.

I will write or draw on the stall or on the bathroom walls.

I will slip and slide through wet spots on the bathroom floor.

I will stuff toilet paper, paper towels, or other objects down the toilet or sink drains.

I will kick on the walls of the bathroom.

I will quickly and safely enter the restroom, take care of my personal business, and leave the restroom.

I will make inappropriate sounds or comments while people are using the restroom.