

I have dedicated my time to what matters most: family and community service. As a proud product of Lawrence Township schools, my husband, Robert, and I have made this district our home for over 15 years. I am a small business owner in Lawrence. Together, we are raising five children who have either previously or currently attended Lawrence schools.

I currently serve as Vice President of the Lawrence Township School Board and have been actively involved in several community-focused initiatives. My experience includes serving on the Faith in Indiana Board of Directors and working with various faith-based and nonprofit organizations dedicated to community advocacy. I am also a member of the IndyPeace Collective advisory board, where I collaborate on efforts to address youth violence.

As an active member of my church, I serve with the Ignite Teen Ministry and have had the privilege of speaking at events to advocate for whole-child wellness. I am passionate about sharing how this approach has transformed my family and strengthened the communities I serve.

“I desire every family to have an educational experience that will cultivate their children’s abilities and talents. As well as positively impact the communities around them.”
