

The Rotary Club of Wimberley Scholarships 2025

Application Information

The Rotary Club of Wimberley, Texas invites scholarship applications for the 2025 academic year. Two scholarships will be awarded for academic or vocational training. The Rotary Club of Wimberley will determine award amounts.

Graduating high school seniors preparing to enter college or technical school are encouraged to apply. Selections will be based on applicants' demonstrated interest and on financial need. Academic performance will be considered when qualifications are otherwise equal. The applying student must have at least a 2.5 grade point average.

For an application to be considered, the Scholarship Committee must receive the following by noon, Friday, April 4, 2025:

- (1) A completed Scholarship Application form,
- (2) High School transcript,
- (3) A Personal statement expressing your goals and why you should be considered for a scholarship,
- (4) A statement about your favorite book and the effect it has had on your life, and
- (5) At least two (2) letters of recommendation.

Wimberley High School: Application forms may be obtained from the Wimberley High School Counselors' Office or online at the Wimberley ISD website. The completed applications must be returned to the Counselor's Office no later than 12 noon on April 4, 2025, for pickup by a Rotary Club of Wimberley Scholarship Committee representative. Recipients of the scholarship will be announced at the Wimberley High School Awards Ceremony.

Katherine Ann Porter School: Application forms may be obtained from the KAPS Counselor's Office. The completed applications must be returned to the Counselor's Office no later than 12 noon on April 4, 2025, for pickup by a Rotary Club of Wimberley Scholarship Committee representative. KAPS recipients of the scholarship will be announced by KAPS.

Homeschoolers: Application forms may be obtained from the Wimberley Village Library front desk. The completed applications must be returned to the library's front desk no later than 12 noon on April 4, 2025, for pickup by a Rotary Club of Wimberley Scholarship Committee representative.
