The mission of the Texas Education Agency is to provide leadership, guidance and resources to help schools meet the educational needs of all students (read more about the agency).

The TSDS Core Collection is an effort to consolidate approximately 160 separate data collection systems at TEA. The TSDS Core Collection improves and standardizes the completion, submission, validation and reporting processes for many of these data collections. In some cases, the legacy collections require manual data submissions; TSDS automates those laborious and error prone processes and creates a single, unified system for data submission that is consistent and easy to use.
