SCHOLARSHIP INFORMATION

Two $1,000 Scholarships

WOMEN IN MINING (WIM) is a nationwide organization comprised of individuals employed in, associated with, or interested in mineral education and the mining industry. Women in Mining is dedicated to educating students, teachers, and the public about the importance of minerals in our daily lives.

Founded in 2022, WIM Idaho Chapter is, above all else, an educational group. We are environmental engineers, geologists, miners, finance, legal and administrative professionals, safety engineers, mine engineers, educators, and much more. We work together toward a common goal: To raise public awareness about the value of minerals and their direct correlation to our standard of living.

Those committed to obtaining an education leading to a degree through a course of study related to mining, geology, engineering, or environmental studies are encouraged to review these WIM Idaho Chapter scholarship guidelines for eligibility requirements and to submit their application for consideration.
