Megan via email: January 24th souper bowl for teachers. Putting out by sign up genius. Ann will help with clean up.

Star breakfast went okay but not all students are showing up. Possibility of putting breakfast bars in teacher's box with note "Sorry you missed breakfast". Deb suggested talking with the teachers some more about this. It was posted on guidance, PTSO and announcements.

Maybe do an email blast to students to let them know they were nominated.

Fundraising:

For Valentine, in the past have done bears. Discussed different options with costs. Decided on the Frog. Will place the order, send a letter home, picked dates to sit in café for order taking (6th, 8th and 11th) and deliver on February 14th. Will staple card and put in a bag to let 4th block teachers hand out.

Communications:

Cookies went over great for Walter Bickett. Some parents that were there were excited. It was in a small room so maybe next time do it in the media center.

Performing Arts:

The December Junior show, Laramie Project, went well. It was written up in the Enquirer Journal.

The winter collaborative before break went well.

January, gear up for spring musical, Rock of Ages. Lots of work for costumes, production, meals for students and parents still in the works. They are fundraising.

Dancing with the Stars is January 26th.
