

Orange Lutheran's story is one of faith, excellence, and transformative education. As we celebrate the milestones of our past and look ahead to a bright future, we invite you to play a lasting role in this legacy through membership in the 1973 Society.

The 1973 Society is more than a recognition program—it's a commitment to ensuring that generations of students continue to grow in faith, knowledge, and service. By including Orange Lutheran in your estate plans, you join a distinguished group of visionary individuals who believe in the power of Christian education to change lives.

ABOUT THE 1973 SOCIETY

The 1973 Society honors those who make planned gifts to Orange Lutheran, securing its future for generations to come. Whether through a bequest, trust, charitable annuity, or other estate planning vehicles, your legacy gift will support the students, programs, and mission that matter most to you.

As a member, you help ensure that future Lancers receive the same faith-filled, academically rich experience that has shaped so many lives. Whether your passion lies in tuition assistance, academic innovation, athletics, the arts, or faculty excellence, your legacy will make a lasting impact.

WHY LEGACY GIVING MATTERS

While annual gifts meet today's needs, legacy gifts build a strong foundation for Orange Lutheran's future. Your generosity will help:

- Provide tuition assistance to deserving students
- Enhance academic, spiritual, athletic, and arts programs
- Invest in faculty excellence and innovative teaching resources
- Maintain and improve campus facilities

By joining the 1973 Society, you ensure that Orange Lutheran remains a Christ-centered institution that prepares students to lead with integrity, wisdom, and faith.

MEMBERSHIP & RECOGNITION

To join the 1973 Society, simply notify Orange Lutheran's Development Office that you have included Orange Lutheran in your estate plans using the included form. While sharing your planned gift amount is helpful for future planning, it is not required for membership.

As a valued member, you will:

- Receive a special gift in appreciation of your commitment
- Be listed in annual publications, including the 1973 Society website*
- Enjoy invitations to exclusive gatherings and special events with like-minded supporters

ESTATE PLANNING MADE EASY

Orange Lutheran is proud to partner with Financial Planning Ministry (FPM) to provide professional estate planning services for the Lancer community. Whether you need assistance creating a will, establishing a trust, updating an existing estate plan, or exploring other options, the professionals at FPM provide peace of mind while making it simple to include Orange Lutheran in your plans, all at no out-of-pocket cost to you.

Estate planning workshops are held twice yearly at Orange Lutheran's North Campus. These sessions offer valuable guidance on creating or updating an estate plan and allow attendees to ask questions about planned giving. For more information on upcoming workshops, contact Bruce Freeman at bruce.freeman@lhsoc.org or visit lhsoc.org/estate.

By joining the 1973 Society, you ensure that Orange Lutheran remains a place where faith, knowledge, and service continue to thrive for generations. We invite you to take this meaningful step today and be part of a legacy that will shape lives for years to come.

Members may request to be Anonymous if recognition is not desired.*
