Activities for Exceptional Children's Week 2025

Monday (3/10): Morning Announcement

Announcement:

Good morning! This week, we are celebrating Exceptional Children's Week with the theme "Building Futures." This is a time to recognize and appreciate the strengths, talents, and achievements of all students, especially those with exceptionalities. Each of us has unique abilities that help shape the future, and together, we are building a school and a world where everyone has the opportunity to learn, grow, and succeed.

Let's kick off the week by thinking about this quote from Christopher Reeves, Actor, paralyzed after injury: "A hero is an ordinary individual who finds the strength to persevere and endure in spite of overwhelming obstacles."

Tuesday (3/11): "Skills for Success"

NOTE: Don't forget to tweet your pictures of students and/or staff participating in this activity. Please tag FCS_SEC using the hashtag #SEC_ECW25

Activity: Career Dress-Up Day: Students dress as their future careers.

Wednesday (3/12): “Blueprints for the Future” Mural

NOTE: Don't forget to tweet your pictures of students and/or staff participating in activity. Please tag FCS_SEC using the hashtag #SEC_ECW25

Activity: Each student contributes a drawing or statement about their dreams/goals for the future. Students work together to arrange their pieces into a large mural, symbolizing how everyone plays a role in building a better future. puzzle-piece-pattern.pdf
