New Teacher Boot Camp

Join this interactive three-day training for new teachers with essential strategies and support to confidently begin their teaching journey. We'll focus on:

- establishing effective classroom routines
- implementing positive classroom management techniques
- understanding student needs—including trauma-informed practices and special education accommodations
- mastering instructional planning aligned with standards

Teachers will engage in targeted breakout sessions tailored to their grade-level or special education needs.

Presenters: Allison Whitworth, Lacey Ferguson, Beth Yarbrough, Robbie Shuey

Who should attend? New teachers that have not been through a teacher licensure program. If space allows, will let new teachers in that have been through a program.

Breakouts are scheduled throughout for specific learning about a topic based on grade level or SPED needs.

Stipend: $250/day, lunch provided (all stipends are before payroll costs)

Monthly follow up sessions listed below.
