FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FORSYTH COUNTY SCHOOLS NAMED TO FORBES BEST EMPLOYERS LIST

CUMMING, GA – Forsyth County Schools has been recognized as one of America's Best Large Employers by Forbes, a prestigious national ranking that highlights organizations fostering exceptional workplace environments.

The ranking is based on an independent survey of employees across the country, evaluating the workplace environment, benefits and salaries, opportunities for professional growth, and overall job satisfaction. Forsyth County Schools ranked 89th in the nation, and 5th among best large employers named in the state of Georgia.

"This recognition is a testament to the dedication and passion of our educators, staff, and leaders who make Forsyth County Schools an exceptional place to work," said Superintendent Mitch Young. "When our employees feel valued and supported, they are empowered to do their best work in shaping student success. We are also deeply grateful for the steadfast support of our families and community partners, whose collaboration helps create enriching opportunities and a strong foundation for every student."

With over 6,300 employees, Forsyth County Schools continues to invest in professional development, career growth, and collaborative leadership to ensure an unparalleled workplace that attracts and retains top talent. The district's commitment to innovation and student success has made it a model for school systems nationwide.
