FRONTLINE

Frontline is a self-service system that helps schools manage employee absences and coverage for those absences. When a teacher enters their absence(s) into Frontline, this creates an assignment for a Guest Teacher to accept/decline.

This is the system you will use to accept and keep track of your assignments.

Three Ways to Access

- Website: <https://login.frontlineeducation.com>
- Phone: (800) 942-3767 (add this number to your contact list).
 - Check out the GUEST TEACHER FAQ: Frontline for information on how to find your Phone PIN.
- Frontline Education App: Available in the App Store and on Google Play

Using the Frontline Website

Guest Teachers may select/review future assignments 24 hours/day / 7 days/week!

- The Frontline Website provides access to all features and functions.
- The phone and app do not have access to all features and functions.

IMPORTANT! Be sure to calendar when you accept future assignments. Occasionally Guest Teachers forget that they accepted a future assignment and do not show up, leaving students without the support they need. Please be mindful of this when booking with other districts so that you do not double-book.

- Do you work in multiple districts that use Frontline? To have access to "multiple district view," log into the Frontline Website. Under Navigation > Preferences > District List. Follow the instructions to view all your substitute districts at once.

When Frontline Calls You

- It will tell you the Employee's Name (or Vacancy / Roving), Location, Classification (ex. PE Teacher), Date, and the Start Time / End Time.

- If you accept an assignment, the system will always give you a Confirmation Number. If you do not receive a Confirmation Number, the assignment was not correctly accepted.
- NOTE: The Sub Office does not automatically assign substitutes to absences entered by employees. Substitutes must accept work themselves via the automated phone system, app, or website.

Morning Assignments - Call / Text Times

For unfilled assignments, Frontline will call out to available Guest Teachers.

Guest Teachers may view Frontline's Call Times within their Frontline account under Preferences > Call Times.

- Morning callouts for same day assignments is Monday - Friday 5:00am - 11:00am.
- Guest Teachers may personalize these times on the Frontline website.

Frontline never calls in the morning for future assignments.

- Important! If Frontline is calling you in the morning, it is important that you answer!
 - This call is either a cancellation or a change to the assignment.
- Although we attempt to honor all requests, there may be times when redirection to another classroom, subject / grade level or site is necessary.

DISCLAIMER ACCEPTANCE: Limiting your availability to accept Frontline calls from our district will be considered a declaration of not accepting work and may be considered a Non-Work Day for the purposes of employment verification.

- To edit Call Time Preferences, click on the "Edit" link below the desired day. Select the button for "Call me between." Enter the desired times for Frontline to call you. NOTE: You will only be called during the periods of time that overlap with the district call times. Choose if you want to apply the changes to all days or just to the selected date.

Sub Office technicians will directly call/text Guest Teachers starting at 6:10 AM to fill unfilled assignments.

- If you verbally agree / text acceptance of an assignment, the Sub Office technician will assign you to the assignment.
- Give the technician an estimated time of arrival so they may update the assignment and alert the site.
- Do you have calls from Frontline turned off? If so and there are still assignments to be filled, a Sub Office technician may still call you. If you are not available, use Frontline's Non-Work Days feature to mark yourself unavailable. By marking yourself unavailable, your name is removed from Frontline's call list for that day.

Future Assignments - Call Out Time

System callout time for future assignments is 7 days a week (including holidays) from 5:00pm - 9:30pm - Frontline only calls in the evenings for future assignments.

Accepting Multi-Day Assignments

IMPORTANT! Read the "Notes to Substitute" and start/end dates of multi-day assignments to ensure that you can fulfill the entire assignment before accepting.

Long-Term Assignments

If you are offered a long-term assignment, advise the Sub Office of any dates you are unable to work on before accepting. The school site must approve this adjustment prior to scheduling you.

NOTE: If you are late, or absent more than 3 times, the site may request a different sub.

Preferred Schools

You have the option to make changes to your school preferences. To do so, log on to Frontline and select "Preferences." Choose the "Schools" tab. Make the desired changes and click the green "Save" button in the upper right-hand corner. NOTE: Some locations do not use subs, i.e., "DO-ACCOUNTABILITY", and may be ignored.

- If the "Show me assignments at the ..." is checked:
 - Any boxes that are checked are sites you will receive called for.
- If the "I don't want to see ..." is checked:
 - Any boxes that are checked are sites for which you will not receive calls.

Your Non-Work Days

If you are unavailable, you should add your Non-Work Days to Frontline. This will allow Frontline to only call Guest Teachers that are available to work on a given day.

In Frontline, from the Home Page click on the “Non-Work Days” tab. Click the Add Non-Work Day button. Make the desired changes and click on the Save button. In this example, the Guest Teacher has selected Mondays as Non-Work Days from 8/19/2024 through 10/4/2024, all day with a reason of “School”.

If you are only unavailable for partial day, you may add just those hours. Please be sure to notate the hours in the from/to section, as well as in the “Reason” section.

NOTE: If you have an assignment in the future and you attempt to create a Non-Work Day on the same date, Frontline will return an error message. Either change the date or cancel the assignment before adding the desired Non-Work Day.

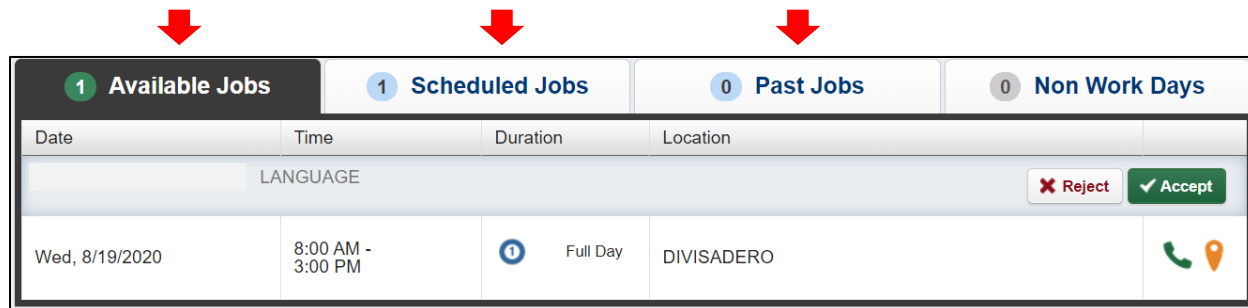

Two screenshots of the "Add Non-Work Day" form. The left screenshot shows the form with "Date" set to 4/1/2025, "Repeat" unchecked, "From" and "to" fields empty, "All Day" checked, and "Reason" set to "Dr. Appt". The right screenshot shows the form with "Date" set to 4/1/2025, "Repeat" unchecked, "From" set to 8:00 am, "to" set to 11:30 am, "All Day" unchecked, and "Reason" set to "8:00-11:30; Dr. Appt".

How to Review Assignments

Review Frontline assignments from the homepage by selecting the desired tab:

- Available Jobs
- Scheduled Jobs
- Past Jobs

A screenshot of the Frontline homepage showing the "Available Jobs" tab selected. The table lists a job for Wednesday, 8/19/2020, from 8:00 AM to 3:00 PM, duration "Full Day", location "DIVISADERO". The table has columns for Date, Time, Duration, Location, and a "LANGUAGE" column. There are "Reject" and "Accept" buttons in the top right corner.

Date	Time	Duration	Location	LANGUAGE
Wed, 8/19/2020	8:00 AM - 3:00 PM	Full Day	DIVISADERO

How to Cancel Assignments

Did you know that you are able to cancel an assignment yourself through Frontline? This applies to single day AND multi-day assignments!

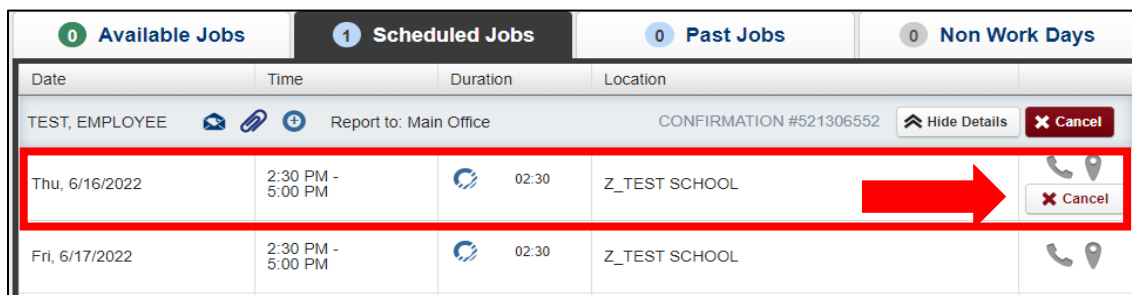

While we recognize that unforeseen circumstances may arise, it is your responsibility to notify the Sub Office as soon as possible if you are unable to fulfill an assignment that you have accepted.

Log onto the Frontline Website to cancel an assignment as soon as you know you are not available.

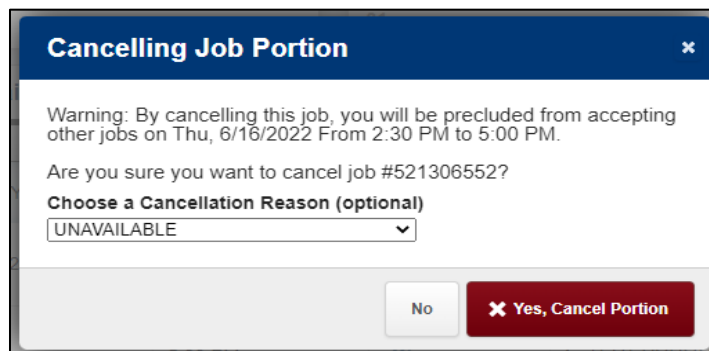

1. Assignments may be cancelled via the Frontline Website up to 2 hours before the start time. Log onto your Frontline account and click on the Scheduled Jobs tab.
2. Click the drop-down arrows next to the "See Details" button.

3. Click on the red "Cancel" button of the desired date.

4. A pop-up window stating, "Cancelling Job Portion" will appear.

5. Choose the Cancellation Reason
6. Click on the red "Yes, Cancel Portion" button. Make sure that you see a pop-up that says, "Job Cancel Successful."
7. For an assignment cancelled by the Guest Teacher less than 12 hours before the start time of the assignment, Frontline will create a system generated Non-Work Day on the Guest Teacher's schedule. This Non-Work Day cannot be removed.
8. The Sub Office monitors the activity of cancelled assignments. If a pattern of last minute/same day cancellations are identified, the Guest Teacher will be notified via email and may be denied further offers of work.

We ask that update Frontline as soon as possible if you are no longer available.
This allows us to try to secure other coverage.

OUR SCHOOLS

It is important to familiarize yourself with our school sites before accepting assignments. Knowing the location of a site will help you determine:

- Driving directions
- Traffic and road conditions
- Estimated drive time

When accepting assignments in Frontline, the location is included in the assignment information. Simply click on the location icon (next to the green phone icon) and a map will open to guide you to the school.

Email is a tool that is commonly used to exchange information in an efficient and timely way. With this access comes some caution and direction in terms of your use of the e-mail system. Substitute employees:

- Shall not read other users' electronic mail or files without permission. They shall not attempt to interfere with other users' ability to send or receive electronic mail, nor shall they attempt to read, delete, copy, modify or forge other users' mail
- Should have no expectation that their e-mail is private. It is important to keep messages brief, using only appropriate language
- Should not use email to transmit confidential information regarding students or employees
- Should not send mass (divisions, departments, or entire school sites) or global emails (All VUSD) without approval of the Superintendent or appropriate designee
 - Global e-mails sent to "All VUSD" users must be of work-related importance to all employees
 - It is never appropriate to mass broadcast personal, political, or collective bargaining messages to employees. Be sensitive to other employees regarding the time it takes to open, read, and delete unnecessary or unwanted email
- Should not share their password with anyone
- Should be conscious of the fact that students are very adept in technology. Students should not have access to the personal computer over which you send and receive district email

- Should understand that e-mail and “instant messaging” are two completely different functions. Instant messaging colleagues, students, or parents is an inappropriate use of district technology and is not allowed
- Should take caution when opening e-mail from unknown senders as viruses can disrupt the entire district network

Penalty for Inappropriate Use

Visalia Unified School District may dismiss at their discretion any Guest Teacher who fails to abide by Governing Board expectations regarding use of technology.

Appearance and Dress

Guest Teachers are expected to exercise good judgment and present a clean, neat appearance that is appropriate for each assignment.

Appropriate

- Professional attire that is appropriate for the specific assignment is required (Classroom setting vs. PE assignment).
- Clothing should be neat, clean, and align with the standards expected of professional educators in the classroom.

Inappropriate

- Any attire that causes a distraction and impacts the learning environment of students or creates an unsafe environment.
- Garments that expose undergarments, private areas of the body/midriff.
- Any Torn/tattered clothing
- Hats/Beanies
- Hooded sweatshirt (Ok if in PE assignment, hood must stay down)

Remember, you are representing VUSD to students and the public

Feedback Policy

VUSD values constructive feedback to help Guest Teachers continually improve. You may periodically receive feedback regarding your performance as a substitute.

When a school site or teacher gives feedback regarding your performance, you will receive an email. The feedback will be included in the email message. This feedback is confidential, with only the Sub Office reviewing it.

In some cases, you may be asked to attend an in-person meeting to discuss the feedback, especially if there are concerns that need to be addressed. These meetings allow for deeper discussion around the issues raised and to develop an action plan for improvement, if needed.

The decision to handle feedback over email or in an in-person meeting will depend on the nature and severity of the comments. Minor feedback will be shared over email, while more serious concerns that require a dialogue will be addressed in a meeting.

Please be aware that repeated negative feedback or failure to improve based on feedback provided will result in your removal from Visalia Unified's substitute system, ending your service with the district.

We appreciate you being open to constructive feedback as we strive to provide the best possible experience for teachers, students, and other staff members when a substitute is required.

CLIMATE AND CULTURE BEST PRACTICES

Communicate the Significance of Learning

- ALWAYS follow the teacher's lesson plans! For more information, refer to the TEACHING STRATEGIES section of this handbook for listening and teaching strategies.
- Be strong early on. "Don't be a pushover. Assert your authority early. You can always become a little more relaxed later, but the students need to know they are not going to get away with stuff while you are there." -Jillian E. from weareteachers.com.
- Remember to always provide closure at the end of class.

Job Performance - Expectations

Guest Teachers are expected to:

- Work with employees and students in a productive, cooperative, and positive manner
- Follow the teacher's lesson plan
- Render honest, efficient, and effective services in the performance of duties
- Obtain materials, equipment, and tools needed for the job in the prescribed manner
- Are courteous to students, teachers, supervisors, administrators, other District employees, and members of the public

Actions that constitute unsatisfactory job performance include but are not limited to:

- Any physical contact or force with students, as this does not maintain appropriate boundaries or ensure student safety.
- Threatening, intimidating, using profanity (or other inappropriate language), when interacting with students or staff on district property, at any time
- Sleeping while on duty in the classroom
- Leaving students unattended or leaving students with an aide without prior approval from the office staff
- Allowing any unauthorized individual into any district facility
- Providing students with your personal contact information or asking for their personal contact information
- Using tobacco or being under the influence of alcohol / illegal drugs on district property
- Using district equipment or communication devices for personal purposes
- Removing or borrowing district property without permission
- Using inappropriate or unapproved books, videos, etc. in the classroom

- Unauthorized soliciting (such as personal tutoring service) or selling on district premises during hours of duty.
- Distributing or posting literature on district property or posting / removing bulletin board notices without proper authorization.

Following the Teacher's Rules and Consequences

Maintaining consistency with the regular classroom rules and discipline systems prevents confusion and chaos for students. They know the expectations.

- Teachers outline rules and consequences that work for their specific students' needs. Substitutes should trust the systems already in place.
- When you reinforce the teacher's rules and consequences, it demonstrates you care about providing a productive, well-managed learning environment for the students.
- Consistency in rules across all classroom settings is important for fairness and equity for students. Having different rules for a substitute can seem unfair.
- Draw boundaries. NEVER let students take anything off the teacher's desk unless you know from the teacher what they allow and ALWAYS leave a note for the classroom teacher.

Ignoring Behaviors

Students may just be asking a neighbor a simple question. If problems persist, then start with a positive reminder.

- Little things like quickly whispering to a neighbor or fidgeting with a pencil are relatively minor issues that can often be ignored, at least initially.
- Making eye contact can sometimes be a reminder to students that you have an idea they are causing a problem. Making eye contact or using proximity may stop problems very quickly.

Individual Conferences

Individual conferences allow you to privately discuss behavior issues with a student, away from the pressure and embarrassment of calling them out in front of their peers. This can be more effective than public reprimands.

- Ask the student to join you in the back of the classroom for a brief conversation.
- Use a calm, respectful tone, not an accusatory one. The goal is to solve problems, not attack.
 - Never degrade or intimidate students when they are being disciplined.
- Always follow the teacher's rules and consequences.
 - Remind them of the rules/consequences but see if there are root causes you can address.

Listen Before You Discipline

- It is important to listen carefully to students and to consider their point of view before taking disciplinary action.
- Listening to students is particularly important when there is a situation where the Guest Teacher may not have all the information.
- The process of listening will not only assist the Guest Teacher in making proper decisions but will often result in a teachable moment for that student.

Pick Your Battles

It is important to prioritize and focus on major problematic behaviors while avoiding power struggles over petty issues that may undermine your authority anyway.

- Most behavior problems are inconsequential, meaning it does not harm another student or disrupt the whole class. Spending a great deal of time on inconsequential behavior is what disrupts the whole class.
- Minor unacceptable student behaviors are often best dealt with by using a technique known as extinction (ignoring minor negative behavior so it is not reinforced by providing the desired attention). This technique usually results in minor unacceptable student behavior disappearing.

Positive Discipline

Review each school's system for positive discipline. Many school sites have an acronym that helps students to remember what their positive behavior should look like. For example, at Annie R. Mitchell, their acronym is SOAR:

S = Self-Control
O = On Time & On Task
A = Act Responsible
R = Respect

- To get a child back on track, try a simple reminder like this:
 - "Remember that we SOAR when we are on task. Let's focus on finishing our math problems."
- Praising desired behavior is much more effective than punishing undesired behavior. For example, a student keeps turning around in his/her seat to talk to a student behind them. Instead of disciplining the talking student, praise a neighboring student for working quietly on his/her assignment without talking to others. Reward them with a sticker or stamp.

Seating Charts

The ability to call students by name is a powerful tool in classroom management. The use of a seating chart can be invaluable in helping the Guest Teacher.

Tip: If the classroom teacher does not have a seating chart, make a quick seating chart using sticky notes. Notate helpers or those with behavior issues.

R-E-S-P-E-C-T

Each student is a person deserving to be treated with kindness and respect regardless of their language, social training, culture, personal circumstances, etc.

- Students respect an adult who can respect them. One way to show respect for the students is to respect yourself and your role as a Guest Teacher.
- When a student observes a Guest Teacher sitting at the desk reading a paper, on their phone, falling asleep, or refusing to help students, they lose respect for that teacher.
- Keep this thought in mind - Would you want to be a student in your class?

Staying in Control

It is extremely important for the Guest Teacher not to lose his/her temper or lose control of his/her emotions.

- Treat all students with respect.
- Model appropriate behavior even under highly stressful situations.
 - When the Guest Teacher loses self-control, it becomes more difficult to make proper decisions and to retain the respect of students.
 - When the Guest Teacher loses self-control, their behavior often becomes the focus of attention rather than the student's behavior.
 - The most important behavior you need to control is your own.
- Avoid discussions that contain controversial topics, personal qualities, decisions, opinions, or judgments.

Equity & Student Services

The Equity and Student Services Department is committed to supporting school sites to build capacity to cultivate an inclusive, positive, safe culture for their students, staff and families, as they work to meet the academic, social, emotional, and behavioral needs of ALL students.

SEL IMPLEMENTATION: A systematic approach to Social & Emotional Learning (SEL) intentionally cultivates a caring, participatory, and equitable learning environment. Click on the following link to find resources, organized by each of the five SEL competencies, which include explicit lesson ideas, ideas for embedded lessons in core subject practices, articles, videos, and many tips and tools for building an effective classroom culture. Link: Equity & Student Services Website - Educator Resources SEL

Student/Teacher Proximity

Proximity is a strategy that is effective for good classroom management. Moving around the room will help keep all students involved in the lesson. Students are less likely to misbehave when you are moving about the classroom and struggling students may easily be identified.

- Stand at the front of the room while you are presenting the lesson but then move around the room when the students are working on an assignment.
- Stand at the back of the room when showing a video.
- Moving by students who are causing problems may get them to stop acting inappropriately.
- Do not just sit at a table/desk in the classroom and expect the students to stay on task.

Brainstorming

Using this method of sharing ideas allows all students to contribute ideas. Students generate as many ideas as possible within a brief time limit - there is no right or wrong idea. Everyone participates and it helps students get involved and interested in learning.

- Introduce the main topic or essential question you'll be covering that day. Write it on the board.
- Ask students to raise their hands and call out anything that comes to mind related to the topic - words, phrases, images, experiences etc.
- Write down every response in a web or list on the board. Don't judge or give your opinion yet.
- Keep going until you have a good pool of ideas from the class. Encourage creative, freeform thinking.
- Once the ideas have been exhausted, use the brainstormed ideas as a launchpad. Identify what they already know and what needs to be clarified.

Attention Grabbers

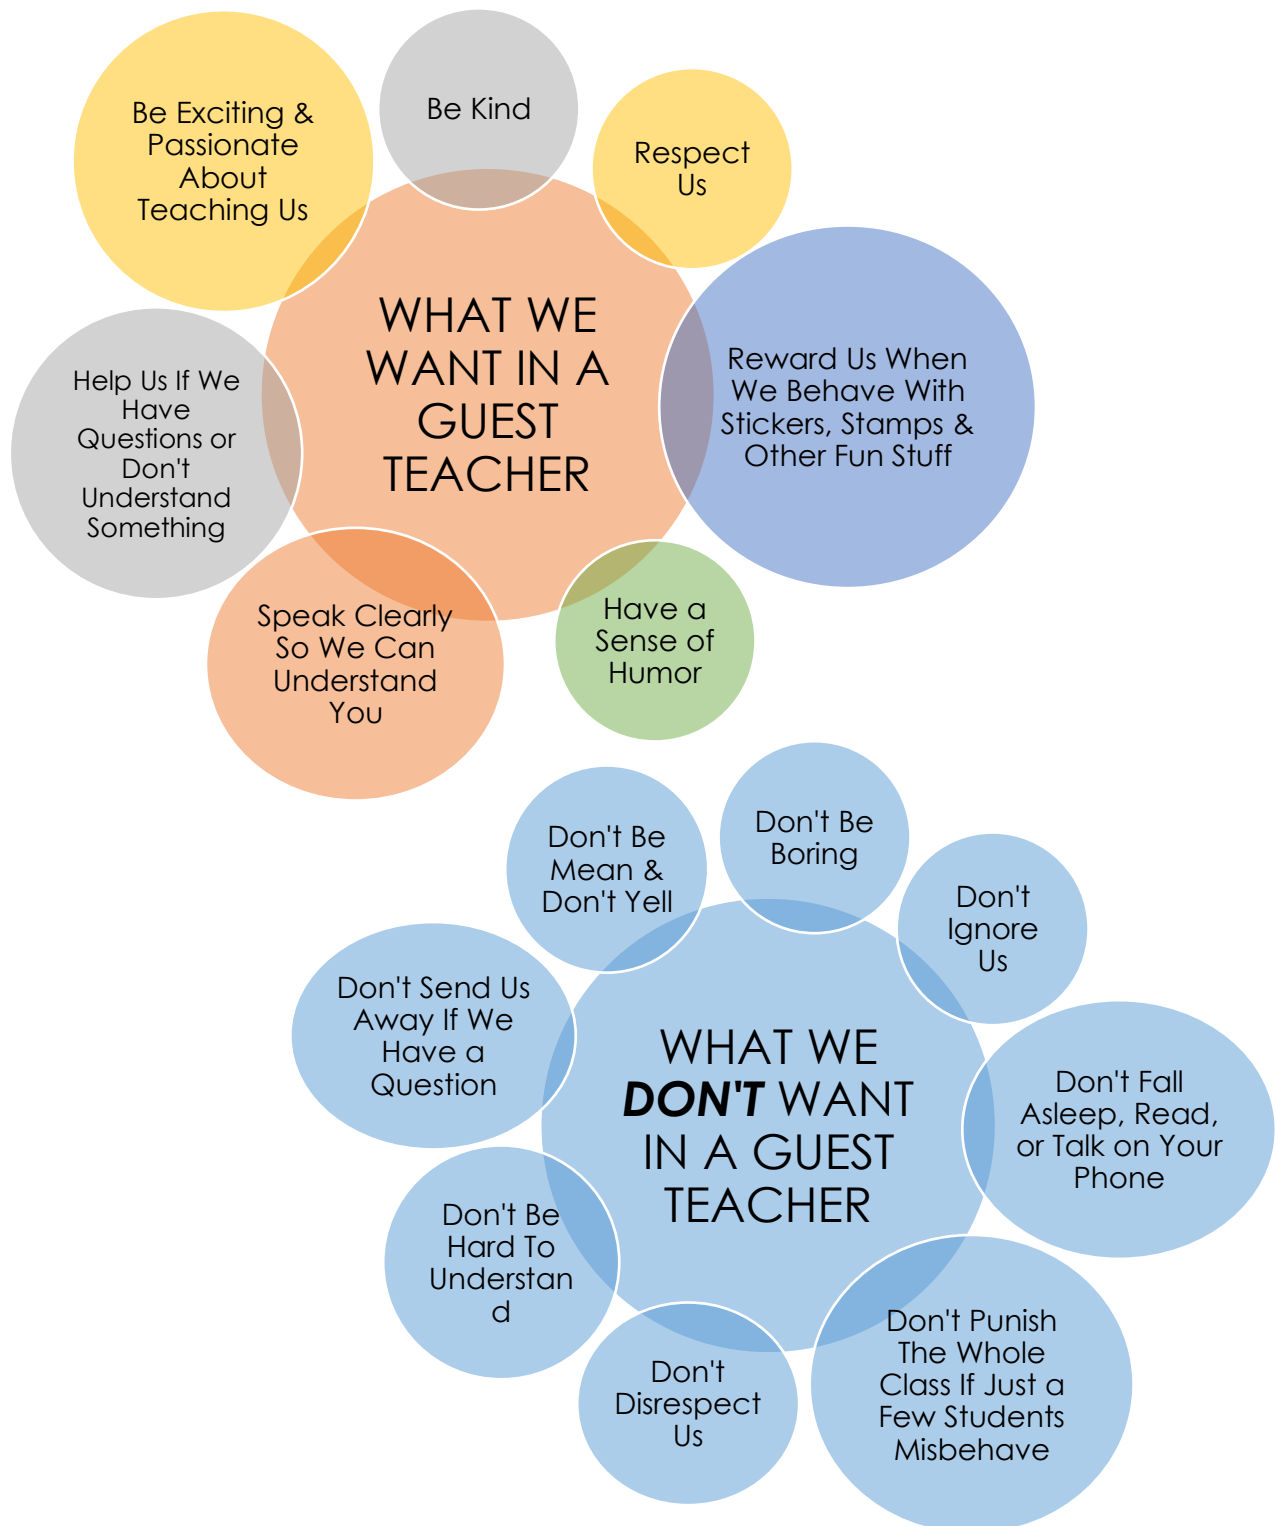

When you need to get the class's attention, it's important to use an effective verbal cue or "attention grabber" before giving instructions. This helps students focus and listen.

A verbal attention grabber is a simple, consistent phrase you say aloud to signal to students that you need their full attention. Some common examples are:

- Teacher: Eyes on me in 5, 4, 3, 2, 1"
- "If you can hear me, clap once/twice
- Teacher: Class, class
 - Students: Yes, yes
- Teacher: Ready to rock?
 - Students: Ready to roll!
- Teacher: Holy moly!
 - Students: Guacamole!
- Teacher; Macaroni and cheese
 - Students: Everybody freeze!
- Teacher: Hands on top
 - Students: That means stop (put hands on their heads)

What Students Want

This was a survey done of 4th grade students. They were asked what they did and did not want from a Guest Teacher.

Questioning

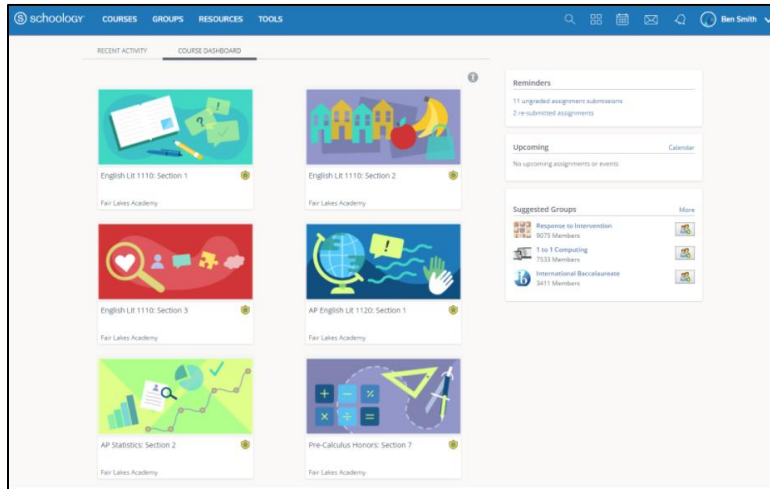

Questioning is a great way to get students to think and problem solve. Asking students questions (who, what, when, why, where, and how) pulls them into a lesson and gets all students to participate.

- Bloom's Taxonomy provides a questioning structure that addresses the various levels of students' intellectual abilities.

Schoology and Zoom

Schoology is a platform used by VUSD as an electronic library. One may access links to adopted materials, curriculum, and lessons. As a Guest Teacher, you may be asked to teach virtually and will be given access to this platform from the school site.

Zoom is the video communication used by VUSD. At some point, a Guest Teacher may be asked to use Zoom as a method of instruction. Zoom is the method of instruction used at Royal Oaks Online.

For more information about the types of tech resources used at our schools, visit VUSD.org > Departments > Business Services > Technological Services > Staff Tech Learning Resources.

GUEST TEACHER GENERAL INFORMATION

Timesheets

Timesheets cover a calendar month and must be taken to each site to record time worked.

Before going to your first assignment for the month:

- Enter your VUSD ID #, NOT your Social Security #
- Enter your full name.
 - This is to make sure we pay the correct person.
- Enter the month worked.
 - This is so that we may correctly report work to the various retirement systems.

Before leaving:

- Be sure the timesheet has been filled out with:
 - Teacher Name
 - Site #
 - Confirmation #
 - Rate (ST/LT)
 - Hours
 - Budget Number
 - Site Approval
 - If incomplete, give it back to the office staff to enter all the required information.
 - NOTE: It is the responsibility of the Guest Teacher to monitor their assignments in Frontline to ensure all assignments worked have been entered correctly on their timesheet.
- Timesheets should be picked up daily from the site office, even if you are scheduled to return the next day - assignment(s) may change.
- Timesheets are due to the District Office by 5:00pm on the first working day after the end of the month worked. No exceptions will be made for late timesheets.

Do not leave your timesheet at a site expecting them to send it to the District Office.
This is how timesheets are late or even lost.

- Date/time stamp your timesheet and place it in the tray at the receptionist's desk.
 - TIP! Use your phone and take a clear picture of your timesheet showing the timestamp as proof that it was turned in on time.
 - December timesheets are due on the last day of school before Winter Break.
 - June timesheets are always due on the last day of the school year.
 - Check Notifications on the Frontline Website and your VUSD.org email regularly for information / reminders about timesheets.
- Payday is on/about the 15th of each month for Guest Teachers.
- If a timesheet is turned in unsigned, the substitute will receive an email to their VUSD.org and personal email address requesting them to come in and sign it.

How To Use Sick Hours - Step-By-Step

VUSD shall deduct sick leave hours when the following steps are followed:

Sick leave will not be deducted if an assignment is accepted and canceled the same day.

- Sick hours may only be used on a day when you are assigned to work.
- If it is more than two hours before the start time of the assignment, cancel yourself out of the assignment. For the Cancellation Reason choose "SICK."
- If it is less than two hours before the start time of the assignment, call the Sub Office so a technician may take you out of the assignment.
- Write "Sick Leave" in the "Substitute For" column, the Confirmation Number in the "Job # " column, and the hours you are requesting to use in the "Total Hours" column.
 - Total Hours may not exceed the original number of hours of the assignment.

For more information on how to cancel an assignment, refer to the How to Cancel Assignments section.

For your sick leave to be deducted, your timesheet must be filled in correctly

Workplace Injury

While we hope it never happens, if you experience a workplace injury, immediately call Company Nurse Injury Hotline at: 877-518-6702 and enter or say the Search Code: TUJ02. Company Nurse will triage your care and route you to a medical facility if needed. Additionally, report the workplace injury to the school office and fill out the appropriate form which is available on each campus.

Medical Issue

If a Guest Teacher experiences a personal or work-related injury that requires medical attention and the doctor has provided a doctor's note, that note must be submitted to Human Resources.

A Benefits Technician will review your doctor's note once received. If it is determined that the Guest Teacher must be taken off work due to a medical condition or is provided with restrictions in order to work, a follow-up doctor's note releasing the Guest Teacher back to work full duty will be required.

Inactivity

Guest Teachers are expected to work regularly throughout the school year. If a Guest Teacher does not accept any assignments within six months, their profile will be deactivated, and they will need to reapply to work as a Guest Teacher in the future.

We understand there may be periods when you are unavailable to work due to pregnancy, surgery, illness, or other situations. If you anticipate a period of unavailability, please notify us as soon as possible. We will notate your profile accordingly to ensure you are not deactivated.

To notify us of an upcoming unavailability, please send an email to suboffice@vusd.org with the following information:

- Your name
- VUSD ID#
- Anticipated start and end dates of unavailability
- Reason for unavailability

Once your unavailable period has concluded, you are expected to resume accepting assignments. Failure to do so will result in deactivation based on the criteria above.

Annual Guest Teacher Training

In preparation for the upcoming school year, new and returning Guest Teachers are invited to attend a half-day training covering best classroom practices. Guest Teachers will receive an email notification to their VUSD.org email address inviting them to either a morning or afternoon session. Guest Teachers will receive a stipend if they complete the training.

Employee Self Service Portal

The Employee Self Service portal or ESS is currently available for employees to access payroll information, including pay stubs and prior year W2's.

Direct deposit pay stubs will only be available through ESS.

ESS is available to all district employees currently receiving pay. Pay stubs and W2's may be accessed from anywhere. The electronic pay stub is available on ESS on payday.

To access the Employee Self Service portal, please visit VUSD.org > Employees > Employee Self Service.

- Use your VUSD network credentials on the Login screen.
- Save this document for instructions on How to Access Employee Self Service.

Direct Deposit Information

WHY SIGN UP	Without direct deposit, paychecks are mailed two days prior to payday but can take up to 5 business days for the USPS to deliver checks. The best way to guarantee that substitutes will receive their hard-earned money on payday is to sign up for direct deposit. A copy of the Direct Deposit Form is located on the VUSD Website or by clicking here: Payroll Forms
HOW	Complete a VUSD Automatic Payroll Authorization Form and attach a voided check. You may also ask your bank for a deposit form and attach it to the VUSD form. The bank form must be typed and not handwritten. Forms must be turned into the Payroll Department located at the VUSD District Office.
TIME FRAME	It takes one payroll cycle to process your direct deposit. Example: If you turn in the form prior to September payroll closing date, your September check would be a live check that would be mailed to you. If everything is okay, all checks after September would be direct deposit.
ACCOUNT CHANGE	If you need to change your automatic payroll, just use the same direct deposit form, and complete the "change" portion. Be sure to attach a new voided check or typed form from your bank and turn in to the Payroll Department located at the VUSD District Office.

UPCOMING ACADEMIC YEAR

Review the following information to ensure your personnel record does not contain an expiration date that prevents you from accepting assignments in the next school year.

Frontline Updates

Over the summer, log onto Frontline to update the following:

Phone Credentials (Phone # / PIN)	Preferred Schools
Call Times	District List(s) (if applicable)

TIP! Has your email address changed? Log onto your Frontline account. Under the Navigation area select Preferences. On the Personal Info tab, click Edit. Update your Email Address. Click the Apply button to save the updated information.

Tuberculosis Renewal

Your Tuberculosis Test (TB test) results are good for four years from the date the results were read, i.e., a TB test read on March 1, 2023, would be good until March 1, 2027.

Frontline will generate the following email when the expiration is 60 days from expiring:

This is a message from Aesop (Frontline). According to our records, you have the following qualifications that will expire in 60 days on 08/19/2024:

Tuberculosis

Please contact the Aesop (Frontline) administrators (Sub Office) with updated information, if available. Thank you.

Visalia Unified accepts TB test results from any medical provider. Guest Teachers must submit their Tuberculin Skin Test results to Human Resources either in person or attach a copy to an email and send to suboffice@vusd.org for processing.

Alternatively, Guest Teachers may complete a California School Employee Tuberculosis (TB) Risk Assessment Questionnaire via our Online Questionnaire. Once your Questionnaire is reviewed, the results will be forwarded directly to the Sub Office and the Guest Teacher's information will be updated accordingly.

- If the Sub Office is advised that you do not qualify for the Online Questionnaire, you will be notified via email that you will need to get a traditional TB Skin Test completed with a medical professional and then submit the results to the Sub Office.

Credential or Permit Renewal

Teacher Credentials and Substitute Teaching Permits are issued by the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing and have an expiration date. Applicants must renew their document with the CTC before the expiration date to continue to work as a Guest Teacher. Visit the CTC website for more information on how to renew a document.

CTC ONLINE INSTRUCTIONS.

- Forward the email received from the CTC that contains either:
 - Your unofficial permit

Reasonable Assurance Letter

Visalia Unified School District notifies Guest Teachers each year that they have reasonable assurance of returning to work for VUSD for the next school year in their usual capacity as an on-call Guest Teacher after the summer recess period.

- Information on how to complete your Reasonable Assurance letter is emailed out each Spring to the substitute's VUSD.org email address. Once received, sign and return as directed in the letter. Be mindful of the due date.
 - The Reasonable Assurance letter confirms if you will or will not be continuing to substitute when the traditional school year resumes. Failure to return this letter will result in account deactivation. Continued non-response will cause the Guest Teacher to be termed, and they will have to reapply via EdJoin.
 - Please sign and submit the letter as soon as possible.

GUEST TEACHER FAQs

Have a question? The questions below are sorted by the following topics: Assignments, Availability, Frontline and Miscellaneous. Many reference back to sections in this handbook that provide more detailed information. Can't find the answer to your question in this handbook? Email your question to suboffice@vusd.org.

Assignments

1. When are absences entered? How do I know when to log on to pick up a job?
 - There is no specific time when assignments are entered, as employees may enter an absence anytime during the day.
 - Please check Frontline as often as possible to check for assignments.
 - For more information, refer to the Using the Frontline Website section.
2. Why am I seeing assignments being listed between 10:00pm and 3:00am? Why didn't those absences get entered earlier?
 - Assignments are released based on the employee/site preferred lists.
 - When an employee enters in an absence, only their preferred substitute(s) may see the assignment immediately.
 - Once the time has passed for an employee's preferred substitute(s) to see the assignment, the site's preferred substitute(s) may see the assignment.
 - After that time passes, the assignment is available to the general substitute pool.
3. May I accept more than one assignment in a day?
 - Yes, absences are entered throughout the day, so check periodically.
 - Be sure that you do not go over 8 hours worked in one day.
4. I took an assignment, but now I'm not available. What should I do?
 - For more information, refer to the How to Cancel Assignments section on how to cancel yourself out of an assignment.
5. Elementary Schools now get out at 2:30, may I leave early?
 - No. Guest Teachers are expected to work the times listed on the assignment. For more information, refer to the At the End of the Assignment section for ideas on other tasks to complete at the end of your assignment.
 - It is up to the school site if they will allow a Guest Teacher to leave before the end of their contracted hours. NOTE: If the sub chooses to leave before the end time listed in Frontline, the substitute will only be paid for the hours worked.
6. A teacher wants me for an assignment, but I don't see it on Frontline. Why?
 - The teacher may not have yet entered the absence.

- The teacher may not have added you as a Preferred Substitute or the assignment was picked up by one of the teacher's other preferred substitutes.
 - Do you have a Non-Work Day entered? Or did you have a Non-Work Day entered when the teacher entered their absence? If so, Frontline is not able to notify you of the assignment.
 - Is your Sub Permit / Credential on file with VUSD up to date? If not, refer to the Credential or Permit Renewal section on how to update this information.
 - Is your TB Assessment up to date? If not, refer to the Tuberculosis Renewal section for how to update this information.
7. I am a Preferred Substitute for a teacher, but I missed the email and/or call and another Guest Teacher picked up the assignment. Can I have it assigned to me?
- No. It is your responsibility to check email / phone notifications for assignments and accept the assignment before it becomes available for any other qualified/available substitute to accept.

NOTE: Make sure calls from the Frontline automated phone system are not blocked.

Availability

1. I'm not available on Fridays. Can I still get calls or check for jobs, just not on Fridays?
 - Yes! For more information on how to customize your availability, refer to the sections Morning Assignments - Call Times and Your Non-Work Days.
2. I get texts from the Sub Office to work but I'm not available. How can I stop those texts?
 - The Sub Office uses the information from your Frontline Calendar to determine if a sub is available to work.
 - Marking your Non-Work Days will keep you from receiving unwanted calls and texts. For more information, refer to the Your Non-Work Days section on how to enter your Non-Work Days.
 - In addition, it allows the system to only call those that are available to work that day.

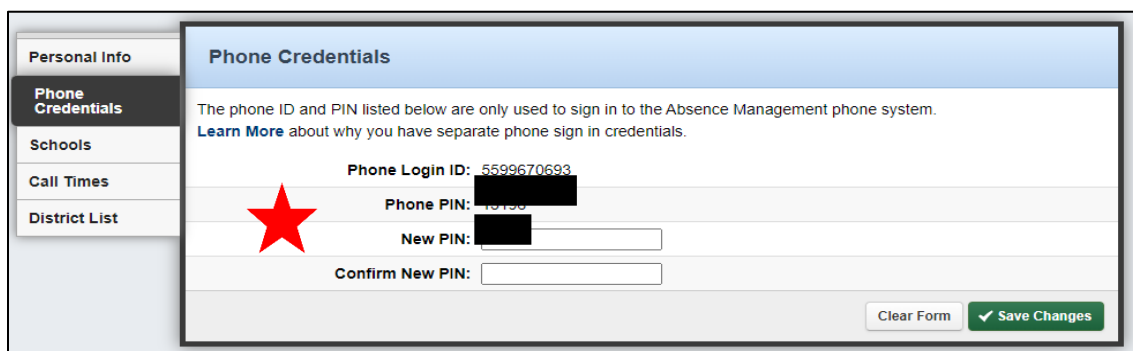

Feedback

1. I received an email regarding feedback, can I find out who provided the feedback?
 - No. To maintain open communication lines and receive candid feedback from our sites, we do not disclose names or identifying details about schools or staff members who provide feedback on Guest Teachers. This allows sites to share information freely.
2. The email I received with feedback lists a lot of different things. How do I know what I need to work on?
 - The items that speak directly to your specific feedback will be notated in red.

3. Can I have more details regarding my feedback?
 - If you have questions or concerns about the substance of the feedback or recommendations rather than the source, please feel free to reach out to the Sub Office with those questions.
4. Do I need to do anything when I receive feedback?
 - Yes, your commitment to improving in these areas is essential to receiving future substitute assignments with VUSD. Please review our policies, observe appropriate boundaries, and focus on providing a positive and productive learning environment for all students.
