Action Taken:

Wednesday, the ISD visit will be in the morning. They are looking at the instructional routines. There may be 4 - 7 people coming into the classrooms. They will visit the teachers on the schedule to ensure all grade levels are seen.

Heggerty materials have arrived. It's the Phonemic Awareness program discussed in LETRS training. District bought for K-3 teachers. School ordered for EC, reading specialists, and other 4-5 teachers to help with students below grade level.

Looking at using CKLA in 3rd next year.

Walkthroughs Data (Word Work or Text Dependent Questions)

- a little word work in 3 out of 4 2nd grade classes: spelling words, text dependent questions,
- only 1 out of 3 2nd grade classes had small groups after 3 times

- 2 out of 4 k classes: spelling sight words, students reading working on phonics skills
- 1 out of 3 4th grade classes: most student were looking at a book and teacher was working one-on-one with student
- Reading specialist was working on science vocab
- 1 out of 4 5th grade classes was working on word parts and word part charades
- 1 fifth grade class was working on sounds and another was working on vocabulary
- 1 4th grade class was asking text dependent questions and 3-letter blends
- 3 of the first grade classes: small groups with letters and vowel sounds with phonological activities
- 2 out of the 4 third grade classes were doing the word work from iStation, others were not doing word work

Trends:

- Small group is not happening consistently
- Why is it inconsistent?

Extended PLC:

- Focus is small group time
- When are you doing it? What resources are needed? Are you posting your schedule?
- Give overview of 4th and 5th on Heggerty - Steele will walk teachers through this
- K-2 bring ideas for stations

OC redesign session next Friday.
