Objectives Planned For Monitor (updates made)

We took a "pulse" of the student and teacher morale, highlighting that everyone, including kids, is working hard toward excellent academic achievement. Ms. Conaway shared that she would like for the team to come up with a hashtag that could be shared with stakeholders so that all involved in teaching and learning at Foust would be aligned to the same mission. The team brainstormed ideas and decided to go back to their grade levels/PLCs for other suggestions. We will meet again to finalize our school hashtag.
