

Guiding Futures

Advancing College Access for Immigration Affected Students and Families in North Carolina

Join College Foundation of North Carolina for a collaborative series that seeks to close the gap between post-secondary aspirations and achievements for a diverse and essential segment of our student population. By raising awareness, implementing targeted interventions, and harnessing collective expertise and partnerships, the program ensures that every student in North Carolina—regardless of their background—has the opportunity to succeed.

Nov. 14 at 11 a.m. - Noon

Bridging Aspirations to Achievement:
An Introduction to Series, Data Insights, and Key Opportunities

Dec. 12, at 11 a.m. - Noon

Navigating Financial Aid: Supporting Non-U.S. Citizens in Achieving Their College Dreams

Scan to view
upcoming events

