

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Sarah Nareau
336.883.3667

HIGH POINT PUBLIC LIBRARY PARTNERING WITH MOREHEAD RECREATION CENTER TO OFFER GCS TEACHER WORKDAY PROGRAMMING FOR CHILDREN

HIGH POINT, N.C. (Sept. 25, 2024) – The High Point Public Library will be partnering with Morehead Recreation Center, 101 Price St., High Point, to offer programming for children during Guilford County Schools Teacher Workdays this school year starting in October. All events are free and open to the public, and no registration is required.

Performances at High Point Public Library (901 N. Main St.)

- Friday, Oct. 18 at 11 a.m. — Groundbreakers from the Spanish-Speaking World (fun for ages 8 - 12), presented by Bright Star Theatre
  - The impact of Hispanic culture on the world is immeasurable. Attendees will hear incredible stories and meet some amazing groundbreakers from the Spanish-speaking world, including Carlos Cervantes, Pablo Neruda, Frida Kahlo, Desi Arnaz, Jennifer Lopez and many more! Celebrate Hispanic Heritage Month and honor these historical figures with this production that is sure to engage young and old alike.
- Monday, Nov. 4 at 11 a.m. — Cherokee History (fun for ages 6 - 12), presented by Bright Star Theatre
  - The Cherokee People have a rich history of myths, legends and folktales explaining everything from the creation of the world to how the plants and animals around us came to look and behave the way they do today. This play introduces young audiences to the Cherokee People through a series of fun and engaging stories. Developed in partnership with the Cherokee Historical Association, this play is a great way to introduce young audiences to the Cherokee people.
- Fri., Jan. 3 at 11 a.m. — Mr. Fantastic the Magician (fun for birth - age 12)
  - Each of these library magic shows delivers at least 45 minutes of fun, amazement and inspiration. The shows blend crazy, mind-blowing magic with hilarious, clean comedy. Kids will likely experience more “ooohs,” “aaahs” and laughs per minute than they have ever experienced with live entertainment.

Performances at Morehead Recreation Center (101 Price St.)

- Friday, Oct. 18 at 2 p.m. — Groundbreakers from the Spanish-Speaking World (fun for ages 8 - 12), presented by Bright Star Theatre
  - The impact of Hispanic culture on the world is immeasurable. Attendees will hear incredible stories and meet some amazing groundbreakers from the Spanish-speaking world, including Carlos Cervantes, Pablo Neruda, Frida Kahlo, Desi Arnaz, Jennifer Lopez and many more! Celebrate Hispanic Heritage Month and honor these historical figures with this production that is sure to engage young and old alike.
- Monday, Nov. 4 at 2 p.m. — Cherokee History (fun for ages 6 - 12), presented by Bright Star Theatre
  - The Cherokee People have a rich history of myths, legends and folktales explaining everything from the creation of the world to how the plants and animals around us came to look and behave the way they do today. This play introduces young audiences to the Cherokee People through a series of fun and engaging stories. Developed in partnership with the Cherokee Historical Association, this play is a great way to introduce young audiences to the Cherokee people.
- Fri., Jan. 3 at 2 p.m. — Mr. Fantastic the Magician (fun for birth - age 12)

- Each of these library magic shows delivers at least 45 minutes of fun, amazement and inspiration. The shows blend crazy, mind-blowing magic with hilarious, clean comedy. Kids will likely experience more “ooohs,” “aaahs” and laughs per minute than they have ever experienced with live entertainment.

For more information about these events, contact Children's Services Manager Sarah Nareau at sarah.nareau@highpointnc.gov.

**###

The High Point Public Library is a City of High Point department located at 901 N. Main St. The library is committed to nurturing the joy of reading, sharing the power of knowledge, strengthening the sense of community and enhancing economic and cultural vitality.