World Languages Department's

Honors Student Profile

To excel in the Westlake High School World Languages Department's advanced level courses, students should embody the following characteristics:

1. Strong Work Ethic: They demonstrate dedication and consistency in their studies and strive for excellence in their coursework.

2. Receptive to Feedback: Open to receiving correction and guidance, they see constructive criticism as an opportunity for growth and improvement.

3. Intrinsic Motivation: They are self-driven, pursuing their language studies with a deep internal desire to succeed rather than relying on external rewards.

4. Avid Reader: They regularly engage with texts to broaden their understanding and improve their language skills.

5. Curious Mindset: They possess a genuine curiosity about the language, culture, and history associated with the language they are learning, driving them to ask questions and seek deeper knowledge.

This profile represents the ideal attributes of a high-performing student in our rigorous language program courses.
