

THE WASHINGTONIAN

Getting in the Holiday Spirit at Washington!

We have had different theme days to get into the holiday spirit. On Wednesday, December 11th we wore white and blue for a Winter Wonderland!

On Thursday, December 12th, student and staff dressed as their favorite holiday characters.

On the last day before before Winter break, Washingtonians wore pajamas and watched the Polar Express. They had a special visit from the conductor who brought everyone a bell!

THE WASHINGTONIAN

Holiday Traditions

We asked various Washingtonians to share their some of their holiday traditions.

Every Christmas morning, my mom makes a delicious breakfast and we all eat together before opening any gifts! -Ms Godbold

My family plays different games during the holidays. - Madison

Every Christmas my family has a gingerbread house building contest. The person who builds the house the fastest, wins money! -Anthony

Washington Holiday Sing-Along

On Wednesday, December 18th, all of the Washingtonians performed a a holiday song. Some of the songs that were sung included “Jingle Bells and All I Want For Christmas”. Another highlight was students getting to compete in a game to wrap a human present.
