

New Hartford Public Schools
2025-2026 Superintendent's Proposed Budget
BOE Questions & Comments

28-Feb-25
Revision 1 - 3/3/25

General:

	Question/Comments:	Answer/Response:
1	What can you cut to get it down to a more reasonable increase, maybe similar to the 4% last year?	The BOE can vote to provide a $ amount to cut for Superintendent to provide professional recommendations.
2	Important to note that enrollment was estimated at 428 in 2024/2025 and is at 433. Also birth certificates for 2026/2027 are 66 versus average of low 40's.
3	Does cutting PD effect the REAP and Title IV grants?	yes
4	After such a large increase last year, my suggestion would be to cut any increase that is not contractual or mandated by the State.	ref #1
5	On the overall budget, how can you justify an 8.86% increase to the citizens of New Hartford when COLA is 2.5% and inflation at the end of January was 3%?	COLA 2024: 3.2% COLA 2025: 2.5% Inflation 2023/2024: 4.1% Inflation 2024/2025: 3%
6	Recognizing that we do have additional students with special needs that do need outplacement – we can't keep increasing the budget this much. We are not a wealthy town like those to the east and south. While it would be nice to have the newest and best for our children – asking for a 8.86% increase is unrealistic.	Legal requirement.
7	We have zero control over salaries, benefits, special ed and at this point transportation. Those are our largest fees. We are going to have to cut all the areas where we are not receiving those grants. My only question is what's that impact going to look like?	Less services for students and families. Legal obligations of IEPs for students receiving support are a concern.
8	Agreeing with the general sentiment that we need to break the cycle of coming in with these unrealistic requests at over 8%. Regional 7's proposed budget had a 2.97% increase. We need to get down around 4% at least.	2.97% reflects their regional total. New Hartford's assessment is increasing by 8.25% ($943,000). Regional (23/24) Per pupil is $27,051. New Hartford (23/24) $23,382.
9	Is there an opportunity to do staff cuts through attrition now? Or to incentivize retirement to save money? (For morale, it's better to cut through attrition.)	Yes yearly process.
10	Would there be significant cost savings if we were to consolidate schools? Norfolk and Colebrook are exploring this again and in looking at the upcoming capital costs, it would definitely help on capital expenditures. This is an emotional issue for many, but should it be looked at objectively.	Necessitates at a minimum a year long study with paid consultation.

11	Has there ever been an examination of the possibility of regionalizing all of the schools under the Regional 7 umbrella? There could be significant administrative cost savings, more budgetary streamlining, and better curriculum alignment.	Yes, can be explored. By law we need a minimum of a year to explore, report back and then all towns need to be in agreement.
12	Realizing that Jeff seems to be mirroring our schools after the ones he has been in as far as using volunteer help with classroom parties - why can't we go back to that instead of paying EdAdvance for food. And where in the budget is this listed for Classroom Parties?	Paid for by parents, not in budget. Safety of students.
13	Though it probably isn't that easy to do - can Jeff make up a budget with those dollar amounts that we are contractually obligated to pay? Then add in those lines for items that are used on a daily basis - like copy paper and those that would be nice to have?	Contractual salary increases are approx. $161,000
14	Looking back at Historical Budget Data - the highest budget increase was back in 2006-2007 when it was 5.27%. The majority of the increases fall in the 0% - 3%. There have been only 3 times that it was over 4%.	Highest student need historically.

111 - Prof Staff
1	What is the current staff to student ratio? In classroom? Total staff? How does this compare to other Reg 7 feeder schools?	New Hartford ratio is: 9:1 Colebrook: 8:1 Barkhamsted 9:1 90 total staff Norfolk 7:1
112- Instructional Assistants
1	How many are currently employed? Is there opportunity to reduce?	25. Can be evaluated.

1	2023-2024 was $5,658.00, YTD for 2024-2025 is $0 and why $10,500 for 2025-2026?	Has not been paid for. No longer grant offset of $4,000. Added Star reading for math and language arts $4,000.
320 - Purchased Services
1	Can we manage without CJR service based on hired behavioral health professionals? Can their service be spread across the 3 schools?	No, this is a stand alone service that cannot be provided by our currently contracted professionals. To be evaluated.
2	Is this a mandated service? Can it be removed?	No, it can be removed. For a continuum of services, Region 7 has CJR services.

	3	Why the increase in CJRI 2023-2024 IS $7,225, YTD 2024-2025 is $175.00 why $40,000 for next year? Where in last year's budget was CJRI listed?	Covered under the Behavioral Health Pilot Grant. This will pay for White Memorial field trip, Math Olympiads, DARE.

2	How many students are outplaced and at what cost per student average?	Average cost is $180,000.
3	Why such a large increase? Are we outplacing that many additional students?	Outplacement costs have increased and Excess Cost reimbursement not fully funded by the State. Historically the highest.
4	Special Education continues to take up a larger percentage of the budget every year with unsustainable increases. This will also impact Regional 7, as students rarely exit special education once they begin receiving services. How does our percentage of students receiving special education services compare to the state? Have we examined our process for students entering/exiting special education?	Students are exited from special education. Currently at 25% Special education numbers are similar and increasing at similar rates compared to other districts.

We should be seeing a similar line come down the $55,288.	Title 1 projected increase from last year off sets difference. 408 - Service Contracts

	Arrow Security – after making all those changes with the grant that we received for making our school safe – how can it be justified to pay a set cost for a security person. When this was talked about before the comment was made that our cost would be dependent on whether or not the person we hired came with their own insurance. After listening to the presentation by Arrow Security and asking about a lower cost for someone who has their own insurance, their response leads me to believe there is some extra money being pocketed by someone. We are paying them a flat rate no matter if they come with their own insurance or not. This isn't in my opinion the right thing to do. There must be other companies out there that would take into consideration if a person comes with their own insurance. Do we need to spend this additional money when we have such a large budget increase already? Didn't Arrow security quote us $68,000 before?
	1	Can be evaluated. $75,000 current quote.
