Hanover High School Celebrates Jeannie Kornfeld as Recipient of the Prestigious NH Environmental Educators Legacy Award

HANOVER, NH – Hanover High School is proud to announce that Jeannie Kornfeld, a dedicated and inspiring member of our faculty, has been honored with the NH Environmental Educators Legacy Award by New Hampshire Environmental Educators.

This esteemed recognition celebrates educators who stand out as exemplary in their ability to engage students in environmental studies in lasting and meaningful ways.

Jeannie Kornfeld has been a valued educator at Hanover High School for twenty-eight years, demonstrating an unwavering commitment to excellence in teaching and mentorship. Through innovative teaching methods, deep engagement with students, and a passion for lifelong learning, she has profoundly influenced the lives of many.

The NH Environmental Educators Legacy Award recognizes individuals who go above and beyond in shaping the future of education. The award ceremony will take place on March 24, 2025 at their Spring Conference & Annual Meeting at Tin Mountain Conservation Center in Albany, NH, where Jeannie Kornfeld will be formally recognized among distinguished educators.
