

San Bernardino County Superintendent of Schools
Policy 4336

TEACHING CLASSES

Teaching classes by any management or confidential employee should not conflict with his/her assigned duties. Such additional employment requiring the employee to be absent from his/her assigned duties may be approved but shall be deducted from the employee's salary.

Office supplies, materials or equipment may not be used in conjunction with courses taught under this section.

Approved: September 15, 1994